FOUR RELIGIONS, FOUR HORSEMEN, APOCALYPSE NOW

By A. J. Reffes

Progress Publishers

For Kathy, friend, mentor and wife. Stupor Mundi.

Copyright ©2025 by A. J. Reffes. All rights reserved. Published by Progress Publishers, Berlin, Germany.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 3

HITLER'S GREEN MOVEMENT CHILDREN 4

STATEHOOD FOR TERROR 6

GERMANY BOWS TO ISLAM 8

FOUR RELIGIONS, FOUR HORSEMEN, APOCALYPSE NOW 11

AMERICA TODAY: TYRANNY COLORED RED AND BROWN 13

WILLIAM BUCKLEY: DESTROYER OF CONSERVATISM 15

COLORADO REDS KIDNAP TINA PETERS 18

THE MARXIST UNIVERSE 21

THE ENLIGHTENMENT AND ITS ENEMIES 23

CAMPUS COMMUNISTS IN CONTROL 26

EMPTY SPACES, EMPTY PAGES, NOISES AND SCREECHING 28

DR ANTIFA ESCAPES TO SPAIN 31

JANE AUSTEN'S BOOKS BURNED 33

MARXIST CITIES, SEWERS AND FLOODWATERS 35

THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE IN POLITICS 38

2025:1984 40

A BRIEF HISTORY OF TERROR 42

THE PRINCE OF DARKNESS 45

OCTOBER 18, 2025: GLOBAL RED UPRISING 47

COMMUNISTS CANCEL COLUMBUS 50

INTRODUCTION

These reports are intended for a general, nonspecialist audience. They run the gamut of the arts and sciences, historical and current events, and should provide the reader with useful introductions to given topics. May they encourage a few happy hours of suggestive thought!

This presents our SA botanists and zoologists with a worthwhile task! If these questions are addressed within the SA, if SA men are led—at storm or troop evenings, as well as in the field—to develop a closer connection with everything that grows and blooms outside, everything that crawls and flies, then this will undoubtedly be in the spirit of SA Obergruppenfuhrer Hermann Goring, to whom we owe the Nature Conservation Ordinance. He will be pleased if, in addition to the major political tasks, the SA also cultivates a love of its native nature. This striving towards connectedness, with the totality of life, with nature itself, a nature into which we are born, this is the deepest meaning and the essence of national socialist thought. (Biology by Ernst Lehmann). Civilization in a state of decline is a broken record, sticking at points and playing the same passage, over and over again. The theme of a civilization in a state of decline is the rejection of reason and the embrace of religion. This terrifying leitmotif recurs without end and follows a civilization into its grave. The twentieth century saw the onset of an age of decline, building upon the preceding Age of Romanticism, and definitively breaking with the Enlightenment. It saw the onset of a second religiousness which sought to reverse the progress of centuries and return the West to the Dark Ages. The religions crowding the stage of late Western civilization are many and varied; there are some new and some old; but among the most prominent and influential is radical environmentalism. When this particular religion was first promoted by Hitler's national socialists, the needle of history stopped and this religion has been playing repeatedly ever since. The mystical oneness of all things, the mystical totality of life, nature as a mystical entity, these ideas promoted by the brownshirts are alive and well in the twenty first century, and deepening the grave started by Hitler. The New Brownshirts. Look at the environmentalist movement today and hear a song first sung under the banners of the swastika. It rejects reason in the name of the mystical rights of nature. In the name of Pachamama, the Inca earth goddess. In the name of a special, higher indigenous knowledge which rejects the scientific method and the evidence of the senses. In the name of mystical justice for nature. In the name of the mystical dignity of nature. In the name of regeneration of the mystical organism called nature. In the name of the fundamental, inalienable rights of water. In the name protecting our living relatives, the rivers. In the name of achieving climate action and stopping greenhouse gas emissions. In the name of overthrowing the monstrous tyranny of modernity, the Enlightenment, and scientific and technological civilization: "The 'nature rights' movement is pushing environmentalism into the unscientific realm. Specifically, the movement promotes a neopagan mysticism—such as invoking Pachamama the Inca earth goddess—as a major basis for its advocacy. Such unscientific approaches have reached the highest levels of the ivory tower and have been invoked in medical and science journals. Most recently, the Harvard Kennedy School hosted a symposium on 'nature rights' undergirded by 'indigenous knowledge' as part of the 2025 Harvard Climate Action Week. From Indigenous Leadership On Protecting Water As A Fundamental Right: Throughout the event, a recurring theme was the need to reframe the human relationship with water —not as a resource for human consumption but as a living relative with which humans share reciprocal duties. From BainBridge's Great Lakes fisheries to Ropati's relocated Alaskan village, to Leonard's global movement for the rights of nature, each story underscored that indigenous leadership offers not only strategies for survival but also pathways toward justice, dignity, and regeneration. As Matthias Risse observed at the outset, human rights depend upon a stable climate and healthy environment. But as the panelists made clear, securing water as a fundamental right requires more than technical fixes or legal declarations. It requires a transformation in how we see ourselves: not apart from the waters, but as part of them.' What 'reciprocal duties' do waterways have toward us? The whole notion is ridiculous on its face. And I'm sorry. Rivers are not alive. Waters are not our 'living relatives.' They are geological features. To treat them otherwise would be to engage in unscientific neopagan mysticism, perfectly proper among indigenous cultures, but no basis for environmental public policies capable of furthering modernity." (Unscientific 'Nature Rights' Mysticism Pushed At Harvard by Wesley Smith). The New Brownshirts. Look at the environmentalist movement today and see the rejection of reason in the name of mystical earth communities and their life cycles. In the name of transforming the relationship of man to nature from human master and natural object to natural master and human object: "The Global Alliance for the Rights of Nature is a global network of organizations and individuals committed to the universal adoption and implementation of legal systems that recognize, respect and enforce Rights of Nature. Rather than treating nature as property under the law, the time has come to recognize that natural communities have the right to exist, maintain and regenerate their vital cycles. Our members are a diverse network of scientists, attorneys, economists, indigenous leaders, authors, spiritual leaders, business leaders, politicians, actors, homemakers, students, activists: people from all walks of life in over 100 countries on 6 continents: North and South America, Africa, Europe, Asia and Australia who are looking to transform our human relationship with our planet." (Global Alliance For The Rights Of Nature, website). The New Brownshirts. Look at the environmentalist movement today and see the rejection of reason in the name of achieving environmental sustainability. In the name of abolishing man's exploitation, oppression and destruction of nature through scientific and technological civilization. In the name of recognizing, respecting and enforcing the mystical rights of the earth. In the name of protecting the health and integrity of the mystical earth. In the name of recognizing nature as a fundamental, rights bearing entity. In the name of transforming the direction of humanity from scientific and technological progress to social regression and subservience to nature: "The primary premise of the Alliance is that in order to ensure an environmentally sustainable future, humans must reorient themselves from an exploitative and ultimately self destructive relationship with nature, to one that honors the deep interrelation of all life and contributes to the health and integrity of the natural environment. An essential step in achieving this is to create a system of jurisprudence that sees and treats nature as a fundamental, rights bearing entity and not as mere property to be exploited at will. Breaking out of the human centered limitations of our current legal systems by recognizing, respecting and enforcing Rights of Nature is one of the most transformative and highly leveraged actions that humanity can take to create a sustainable future for all. The Alliance's objective is to encourage the recognition and effective implementation of Rights of Nature through the creation of a world network of individuals and organizations that, through active cooperation, collective action and legal tools based on Rights of Nature, can change the direction to which humanity is taking our planet." (Global Alliance For The Rights Of Nature, website). The New Brownshirts. Look at the environmentalist movement today and see the rejection of reason in the name of the mystical trees, oceans, animals and mountains. In the name of achieving the good of nonhuman species. In the name of achieving the good of the planet. In the name of the right to life of the ecosystem. In the name of protecting superior nonscientific, nontechnological, indigenous cultures. In the name of living in harmony with nature. In the name of the deep, mystical interrelation of all things and the mystical whole of nature: "It is the recognition that our ecosystems–including trees, oceans, animals, mountains–have rights just as human beings have rights. Rights of Nature is about balancing what is good for human beings against what is good for other species, what is good for the planet as a world. It is the holistic recognition that all life, all ecosystems on our planet are deeply intertwined. Rather than treating Nature as property under the law, Rights of Nature acknowledges that nature in all its life forms has the right to exist, persist, maintain and regenerate its vital cycles. And we–the people–have the legal authority and responsibility to enforce these rights on behalf of ecosystems. The ecosystem itself can be named as the injured party, with its own legal standing rights, in cases alleging rights violations. For indigenous cultures around the world, recognizing the Rights of Nature is consistent with their traditions of living in harmony with nature. All life, including human life, is deeply connected. Decisions and values are based on what is good for the whole." (Global Alliance For The Rights Of Nature, website). The New Brownshirts. Look at the environmentalist movement today and see the rejection of reason in the name of enabling people to speak on behalf of mystical nature.

In the name of stopping the destruction of the earth by modern governments, modern corporations and scientific and technological civilization. In the name of protecting and restoring the earth after the ravages inflicted by human progress. In the name of the rights of the mystical land and water. In the name of the rights of indigenous people and cultures. In the name of environmental justice, social justice and the mystical jurisprudence of nature: "The International Rights of Nature Tribunal examines systemic rights of nature based alternatives to the false solutions and failed negotiations of governing states. The Tribunal aims to create a forum for people from all around the world to speak on behalf of nature, to protest the destruction of the earth—destruction that is often sanctioned by governments and corporations—and to make recommendations about earth's protection and restoration. The Tribunal also has a strong focus on enabling indigenous peoples to share their unique concerns and solutions about land, water and culture with the global community. It is a vehicle for rfeframing and adjudicating prominent environmental and social justice cases within the context of a Rights of Nature based earth jurisprudence." (Global Alliance For The Rights Of Nature, website). The New Brownshirts. The Ring Of The Nibelung was Richard Wagner's master work. In this epic music drama based on ancient German heroes, legends and sagas, the leitmotif comes to life as it never has before, and the recurring melody played by Siegfried's horn has enthralled audiences throughout the world. Since the time Hitler's national socialists first marched through German cities and smashed windows with their creed, a recurring melody has wound its way through the world. The melody can be heard in every home, school, office and business in the land. Its notes are as follows: the mystical oneness of all things, the inherent rights of ecosystems and nonhuman species, and the reduction of man to a rightless slave of the earth. This melody is a jackboot which has trampled over and buried civilization.

STATEHOOD FOR TERROR

Tides are the rise and fall of sea levels caused by the gravitational pull of the moon and sun. When the moon and sun are aligned, their gravitational forces combine and the highest tides occur, and when they are right angles to each other, their gravitational forces oppose each other and the lowest tides occur. Because of these forces, the ocean never stops moving; waves endlessly roll in and recede; and tides endlessly rise and fall. For eighty years, a rising tide of blood has been flooding the Middle East caused by the combined action, the combined gravitational pull, of two movements in alignment. These movements are the number one religions of our time, moral sewers flowing with the human bacteria of hatred and discontent, and they have brought mass murder to the region hosting Arab nations and Israel, the East and the West. These two movements are Marxism and Islam and they have joined forces to defeat a common enemy. The religion which worships society and social groups on earth, and the religion which worships Allah in heaven, confront the world of liberal democracy and the Enlightenment whose fading rays still shine over the West, and they are determined to destroy it. Marxism and Islam are the dominant ideas of the Western cultural and political establishment, and Marxists support Islamic terror in Western nations and throughout the world, and share the Islamic goal of eradicating Israel because it is the only free society in the Middle East. Marxists hate Israel and like Muslims want to see the state and its Jewish inhabitants placed under Muslim control and murdered. For eighty years, since 1948 when the United Nations voted to establish Israel from British Mandatory Palestine, Muslims have been spilling Jewish blood in the Middle East, and on October 7, 2023, the violence reached its highest tide ever. On this day, 6000 Hamas terrorists launched an attack on Israel, killing 1200 people, kidnapping over 250, and committing rapes, torture and beheadings, in the worst acts of violence against Jews since the Holocaust. Palestine. The Marxist establishment in the West, with few exceptions such as America, has rewarded this terror by granting recognition to Palestine. It has granted recognition to the jihadists of Hamas supported by the overwhelming majority of the inhabitants of Gaza, Judea and Samaria. Recognition to a theocratic terror regime backed by Iran. Recognition to a regime whose charter denies Israel's right to exist and calls for genocide against Jews: "During an interview aired on Tuesday's broadcast of Newsmax TV's The Record, Senator John Fetterman (D-PA) stated that granting recognition to a Palestinian state allows Hamas to claim that not only the October 7 attacks, but the massive amount of destruction in Gaza since then was worth it and that both are worth celebrating because now they have their own state. And also stated that the countries doing so should probably consider the fact that Hamas is celebrating the move as a reason to reconsider. Fetterman said, '[W]hat's the message to Hamas? Now, if Hamas responds and they cheer that, what's wrong with you? If your decisions, now, Hamas is cheering, why can't you just reevaluate, maybe we're on the wrong side here?' Host Greta Van Susteren stated that the recognition of the state just gives Hamas an incentive to dig in because they think the world is turning towards them and against Israel, and Fetterman agreed. He added, '[M]ore than what it does for Hamas is that gives them a narrative. Now, they can claim, well, this is all of the destruction in Gaza and what they've been through and those terrible things that we did on 10/7, it's, now we can all celebrate because now we've become our own state.' " (Fetterman: Palestinian State Lets Hamas Frame Its Destruction of Gaza as Positive That Got a State by Ian Hanchett). Palestine. The West has granted recognition to a Palestinian terror regime in the heart of Israel. Recognition to a regime whose boundaries, constitution and democracy enclose and are formed by terror. Recognition to a regime ruled by mass murder. Recognition to a regime run by Muslim killers. Recognition to a sponsor, funder, inciter and implementer of violent Jew hate. Recognition to an arsenal of lawlessness, an act which has cast a black mark on the free world and painted a picture of moral collapse: "French President Emmanuel Macron surrendered to the pressures of Islamist and antiIsrael forces on Thursday, announcing that he would recognize the fictitious 'State of Palestine' in September. Macron's decision is a significant break with the United States, and drew accusations from Israel of supporting terrorism. One Israeli government minister, Amichai Chikli, who used to live in France, responded by posting a video of Macron being slapped by his wife. 'President Macron: Here is the appropriate response to your recognition of a Palestinian state as as a reward for Hamas terrorism.' Other responses were fast and furious, including from former Prime Minister Naftali Bennet, who accused France of 'moral collapse': 'Macron's recognition of a Palestinian state after the October 7th massacre isn't diplomacy; it's moral collapse. It rewards mass murder and tells Islamist terrorists: kill Jews, and the world will hand you a state. This shameful decision will be tossed this into the dustbin of history.' Amir Ohana: 'Macron just awarded Hamas a prize for committing the October 7 massacre. This shameful act is nothing less than a betrayal by one of the socalled leaders of the free world. It sends a chilling message: terrorism pays off. He will be remembered as a collaborator with evil, on the wrong side of history. I'm ashamed to have met this man. I love France. It deserves more courageous leadership.' Bezalelsm: 'I thank President Macron for providing yet another compelling reason to finally apply Israeli sovereignty over the historic regions of Judea and Samaria, and to definitively abandon the failed concept of establishing a Palestinian terrorist state in the heart of the Land of Israel. This will be our fitting Zionist response to the one sided pressure and coercive measures led by President Macron and his allies.' 'Palestine' lacks the basic prerequisites for a state. It has no firm boundaries; no stable constitution; and, while nominally a democracy, has not held elections in nearly two decades. It also sponsors terror and antisemitic incitement against its most important putative neighbor and trading partner, the State of Israel. The move by Macron comes in the wake of fellow European nations Ireland, Norway, and Spain, announcing that they would recognize Palestine as a state in May. Responding to Macron's announcement, Israeli Deputy Prime Minister Yariv Levin said per the Jerusalem Post: 'French President Macron's decision to recognize the fictitious Palestinian state is a black mark on France's history and direct support for terrorism.' " (France Surrenders: Will Recognize Fictitious 'Palestinian State'. Israel Slaps Back by Kurt Zindulka). Palestine. The West has granted recognition to a genocidal regime. Recognition to a regime which has immolated freedom and rule of law on the altar of terror, murder and kidnapping. Recognition to a brazen terror organization. Recognition to a regime which has brought back 9/11 2001 on 10/7 2025. Recognition to a regime whose territory is drawn by terror. Recognition to a regime ruled by violence, the seizure of free people, and religious and political extremism. Recognition which has robbed the West of moral standing, principles, clarity and credibility, proclaiming that terror pays, and putting up a signpost giving the direction and distance of the fall of civilization. Posted by the Hamas perpetrators of the October 7 Holocaust and promoted by Marxists in the West, this signpost gives the direction and distance as right here and right now: "There was a serious gap between the framing and the reality of Prime Minister Mark Carney's announcement last week that Canada plans to recognize a Palestinian state at the United Nations General Assembly this September. Carney framed the matter as a moral stand, and a compassionate response to the human tragedy in Gaza. In fact, it is a major foreign policy mistake —one that rewards terrorism, erodes Canada's moral standing, threatens relations with key allies, and makes peace less likely. Worse still, the announcement underscores Carney's inability to sound credible in explaining Canada's sudden pivot. For months, he echoed Canada's traditional position: statehood must be the product of a negotiated settlement. Now, without any change in facts on the ground—except the mounting civilian toll in Gaza—he is abandoning that stance in a bid to look relevant on the international stage. It is a transparent act of political performance, not principled diplomacy. This war began on October 7, 2023, when Hamas launched a genocidal assault on Israel, murdering more than 1,200 people, including eight Canadians, and taking hundreds of hostages. For Canada, this was another 9/11 moment, echoing the 24 Canadians killed in the Twin Towers. In 2001, Canada stood with the United States in Operation Enduring Freedom, sending a clear message that terrorism brings consequences, not rewards. " (Canada's Recognition Of Palestine Is A Strategic Blunder—And Carney Owns It by Alan Kessel). Palestine. In the twenty first century, 157 out of the 193 member states of the United Nations, or 80 percent of the membership, have recognized Palestine as an independent state. Calling it a "two state solution to the Palestinian-Israeli conflict," the world's states have granted recognition to an Islamic war machine located next to a Western outpost called Israel. In the twenty first century, a terror run pesudostate called Palestine has been granted recognition by a a terror run, pseudocivilization called the West whose official religions are Marxism and Islam.

GERMANY BOWS TO ISLAM

Midnight, October 3, 1990. The flag of the Federal Republic of Germany, the black-red-gold tricolor flag of German unity, flies in front of the Reichstag as cheering crowds commemorate a holiday. On this day, on this German Unity Day, on this Tag der Deutschen Einheit, Germans commemorate the day in 1990 when communist East Germany ceased to exist and its citizens joined the free world. In the twenty first century, this shining day has been blackened by a nightmare and been rendered meaningless. In the twenty first century, Germans east, west, north and south have nothing to celebrate because they are no longer free. In the twenty first century, citizens of the former East Germany, who lived under the iron heel of the communist jackboot, live under a new master inducing as much fear, and are joined in their slavery by their countrymen from the former West Germany. In the twenty first century, Germany is under the control of Islam and is under its control by the will of the majority. Marching under the banners of Yes, We Can!, Welcoming Culture, social responsibility and multiculturalism, the German people have voted to repeal liberal democracy, voted to shred their postwar Basic Law guaranteeing individual rights and freedoms, and voted to sell themselves into slavery to a religion from the East. In the twenty first century, Germans have voted for Islam on ballot paper imprinted with the Soviet Star representing the postwar Marxist cultural and political establishment. In the twenty first century, Germans are Marxists as they once had been national socialists, and as Hitler joined forces with Arabs in the Middle East to eradicate a common enemy, the liberal democratic order and Jews who symbolize it, so Germans today as Marxists have joined forces to eradicate the same common enemy. Germany

Today. Look at Germany today and see a new slavemaster symbolized by Muslim demographics. Symbolized by over one third of thirty five year olds in the nation with migrant backgrounds obeying orders from global Islam. Symbolized by the mass invasion of 1.5 million Muslim migrants unleashed by Angela Merkel in 2015, commencing the European Migrant Crisis. Symbolized by armies of unemployed Muslim migrants collecting welfare and draining away the producers of wealth. Symbolized by Muslim migrant terror attacks reaching across the nation, from Berlin to Mannheim to Solingen to Magdeburg to Aschaffenburg to Munich, and placing ordinary people in the grip of fear: "A study to mark German reunification has found that over one third of 35 year olds in the country have a migration background. Berlin's Federal Statistical Office (Destatis) has released a special demographic report on those born in 1990 when East and West Germany were reunited after nearly half a century of separation. Destatis found that around 1.1 million people were born in the year of reunification, representing 1.4 per cent of the total German population today, broadcaster NTV reported. A significant cohort of those born in 1990 had an immigration background, meaning that they are either immigrants themselves or have at least one foreign born parent. According to the official statistician, 36 per cent of 35 year olds living in Germany now have a migrant background, 80 per cent of whom migrated to the country after reunification. In comparison, around 26 per cent of the German population has an immigration background, demonstrating the propensity of migrants to be younger than the general population. While the study focussed on those born in 1990, many of those would have been born outside of the country at the time, and would have arrived amid the European Migrant Crisis sparked by former Chancellor Angela Merkel's decision to unilaterally open the gates of Europe to mass migration in 2015, resulting in some 1.5 million supposed refugees entering Germany in the ensuing five years, alone. Successive governments in Berlin have attempted to tout the supposed economic necessity of mass migration to mitigate the impact on the jobs market due to declining birth rates. However, such claims have increasingly come into question, with a recent study from the Federal Employment Agency (BA) finding that 33 per cent of all long term unemployed people in Germany were migrants, or over 317,000 people. The figure is likely even higher in reality, as the study did not include migrants who obtained German citizenship. In addition to the economic drain, mass migration has also come at a deep social cost, with the country experiencing a swath of migrant terror attacks over the past year, including in Mannheim, Solingen, Magdeburg, Aschaffenburg and Munich." (Germany: Over One In Three 35 Year Olds Have Migrant Background by Kurt Zindulka). Germany Today. Look at Germany today and see a new slavemaster symbolized by asylum seekers from Syria committing mass stabbings. Symbolized by Festivals of Diversity rejecting the liberal West and celebrating Muslim culture. Symbolized by the proliferation of Islamic extremism. Symbolized by agents of subversion marked Sunni Muslim. Symbolized by Islamic jihad and the calls God Is Greatest resounding loud and clear throughout the streets. Symbolized by outposts of the Islamic State located throughout the nation. Symbolized by mass murder committed with impunity in the name of Muslims in Palestine: "An asylum seeker from Syria has been arrested after a mass stabbing at a 'Festival of Diversity' in Germany on Friday evening. At around 11 pm local time on Saturday, over 24 hours after the attack in Solingen, 26 year old Issa al H, surrendered to police. According to German tabloid Bild, he came up to a patrol car and said: 'I am the one you are looking for.' He reportedly hid in a backyard to evade detection while the day long police manhunt was underway. During the attack, which took place in the city center of Solingen at a 'Festival of Diversity' as the city celebrated its 650th anniversary, three people were stabbed to death and six others were wounded, including four with life threatening wounds. The attacker was said to have specifically targeted his victim's necks, leading to speculation that it was terror related. Der Spiegel reports that Issa al H. was born in Syria, in the city of Deir al Zor, before coming to Germany in 2022 as an asylum seeker. Last year, he was granted protection, allowing him to remain in the country as a result of the civil war in his homeland. He was reportedly not known to security authorities as an Islamic extremist, however, he is said to be a Sunni Muslim. It was claimed that, according to witness statements gathered by police, the attacker had shouted out the jihadi war cry Allahu Akbar as he carried out the attack on the diversity festival. Meanwhile*, Bild* reported that an Islamic State (ISIS) branch claimed responsibility for Friday's attack, saying that it was intended as revenge for 'Muslims in Palestine.' " (Syrian Asylum Seeker Arrested Over Mass Stabbing Attack At German 'Festival of Diversity' by Kurt Zindulka). Germany Today. Look at Germany today and see a new slavemaster symbolized by criminals from Kabul, stealing, killing and peddling drugs, and transforming cities into wastelands and battlefields. Symbolized by migrant attacks on police officers, baby strollers, trade union rallies and the infrastructure of civilization: "At least 20 people were injured, some seriously and others possibly fatally when a driver plowed a car into a trade union rally in Munich, Germany on Thursday morning. Following Bild's earlier claim of internal police information that the man held by police over the driving of a car into a trade union demonstration was an Afghan, this fact has now been confirmed by the Bavarian interior minister Joachim Herrmann. He said the Kabul born Afghan asylum seeker was already known to police for drug crimes and theft. The number of people known injured has also been increased to 28 and Herrmann said it is being treated as a presumed deliberate attack. That the car accelerated into the protest, having passed a police car, and that a police officer shot at the vehicle was also confirmed. Distressingly, images from the scene show a baby stroller upended near to where the car came to a halt. What is now being called an attack by the authorities comes just one day before the Munich Security Conference is due to take place in the city a short drive away. Attended by global leaders, the event is seen as a major meeting for security policymakers and practitioners and is due to last until the end of the weekend." (At Least 20 Injured As Driver Ploughs Car Into Crowd In Germany by Oliver JJ Lane). Germany Today. Look at Germany today and see a new slavemaster symbolized by public squares and parks plagued by migrant crime and rendered unsafe day or night. Symbolized by women shielding children from Muslim attackers and giving their lives to save them. Symbolized by Somali asylum seekers staging knife rampages through cities big and small, sparing neither men, women nor children. Symbolized by the wails and cries of ambulance sirens speeding to scenes of terror brought down by migrants who are Muslims who are mentally disturbed: "At least two people have been killed, including a child, in a mass stabbing at a historic but now crime plagued park in a Bavarian town. The 28 year old Afghan suspect was already known to police and mentally disturbed, local German language newspaper Main Echo c says in its latest updates on the Aschaffenburg attack. They state security service sources who say the man was a registered refugee and that a local refugee accommodation had been searched by police after the attack. The newspaper states they spoke to a local politician in Aschaffenburg who told them the killings reminds him of the Wurzburg attack. To remind readers, in Wurzburg in 2001 a Somali asylum seeker living in the city went on a knife rampage, stabbing ten people—all women—three of whom died. One of the deceased was an 82 year old woman who threw herself between the knifeman and a child he was attacking, while another was a 49 year old woman while defending another child the Somali was trying to stab." (Two Year Old Child Among Dead In Mass Stabbing At German Park, 'Afghan' Knifeman Arrested by Oliver JJ Lane). Germany Today. They came from all walks of life and included people who had never voted before. On January 30, 1933, they gave thunderous waves of applause to the man who promised to deliver them from the chains of freedom. At the Berlin Chancellery, they were jubilant at the sight of their savior. Across Germany, forests of seig heils engulfed the soaring dark tree of Adolf Hitler and national socialism and nourished hate with their frenzy. The advent of the Third Reich marked the first time the people of a Western nation peacefully and democratically voted away their freedom and voted to establish a totalitarian state. In the twenty first century, nation after nation in the West has replicated the German example and Germany itself has revisited this path. In the twenty first century, the former world capital of Aryan race politics has voted to instal a new slavemaster by unanimous consent. Brought by Angela Merkel, mass migration, moral relativism, multiculturalism and Marxist agitation, the new god of Germany is Islam.

FOUR RELIGIONS, FOUR HORSEMEN, APOCALYPSE NOW

They are depicted in paintings the world over and the paintings could fill every wall in an immense, multifloor gallery reaching into the heavens. The painters comprise a who's who of the world's most illustrious artists. Viktor Vasnetsov. Marcin Kitz. Albrecht Durer. Julius Schnoor von Carolsfeld. Benjamin West. The paintings depict the four horsemen of the apocalypse, four harbingers of the end of times, four destructive forces ranged against civilization, four causes of the collapse of human existence. They are War, Conquest, Famine and Death, and they have expressed the pressing fears and concerns of people throughout the world. The twenty first century has seen the galloping advance of four horsemen of the apocalypse, bringing the story of the West to a finish. These horsemen symbolize the leading cause of the decline and fall of nations, societies and cultures throughout history, and are the faces of human spiritual death. The cause is the rejection of that which makes us human and the embrace of that which makes us monsters. The cause is the rejection of reason and the embrace of religion. In the twenty first century, four horsemen are making war against reason, conquering reason, starving reason and killing reason. Ancient Rome had its horsemen, the religions of Christianity, barbarism, state worship and caesar worship seeking to overthrow the rational pagan intellect and the Apollonian culture reaching back to Aristotle and Homer, and the West in the twenty first century has been stricken by four religions bringing down its free fall. These religions, these horsemen, these harbingers, these voices of doom are Marxism, Islam, fascism and Christianity. They commenced their campaign and first appeared over the horizon in the twentieth century, their rise the product of centuries of philosophic antecedents, and in the twenty first century their pace has accelerated and is lowering the curtain on the West and its Enlightenment institutions exalting reason. Look at the four riders of a final age of antiEnlightenment and see a second Dark Ages descend on the West. Marxism. This religion proclaims that the highest reality is a superhuman controlling power called Society, the Proletariat or some other social group, such as a gender or race. Look at Marxists reject individual freedom in the name of fighting fascism. In the name of fighting national socialism. Look at them proclaim that a progressive society is ruled by violent agitators and propagandists. It is a terror organization. It is a round the clock riot and demonstration against liberal democracy. It has open borders and grants citizenship to the scum of the earth. It is run by communist partisans spraying out slogans of subversion and bullets of mass murder: "Members of the domestic terrorist group Antifa pushed back on law enforcement outside the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) facility in Broadview, Illinois, on Friday morning. Around 7:30 am, the leftist agitators showed up at the facility where state police officers and local law enforcement were trying to control the crowds, Fox 32 reported, noting other law enforcement agencies were already present. Border Hawk video footage shows officers working to push the crowd back. Many of the protesters were wearing protective equipment and carrying signs. People behind the camera yelled 'Fuck you!' at the officers while one person screamed, 'Who do you serve?' Another Border Hawk clip shows officers telling the mob they needed to move back. Moments later, someone is heard yelling, 'You nazis! Fuck you!' at them. The Fox article said at least a dozen arrests were made and five people were charged, adding, 'The protest marks the fifth consecutive Friday of demonstrations at the suburban Chicago processing center.' 'Department of Homeland Security [Secretary] Kristi Noem and US Customs and Border Protection Chief Patrol Agent Gregory K. Bovino also made an appearance on the roof of the ICE facility surrounded by armed personnel. An armored truck was also present at the scene,' the outlet stated. President Donald Trump recently signed an executive order designating Antifa as a domestic terrorist organization, according to Breitbart News: 'The order comes less than two weeks after the assassination of Charlie Kirk at Utah Valley University. Authorities reported that ammunition casings recovered from the suspected weapon were inscribed with Antifa related slogans, including 'Hey fascist! Catch!' and the chorus of 'Bella Ciao,' an anthem associated with communist partisans in Italy during World War II and later adopted by Antifa groups worldwide.

Utah Governor Spencer Cox confirmed the suspect, 22 year old Tyler Robinson, confessed to the shooting. Prosecutors have since filed seven charges against Robinson and confirmed they are seeking the death penalty.' " (Antifa Scuffles With Police At Illinois ICE Facility: 'You Nazis! by Amy Furr). Islam. This religion proclaims that the highest reality is a superhuman controlling power called God who resides in heaven. The worshipers of Allah struck the West at the dawn of the twenty first century with terror attacks on September 11, 2001 in New York and Washington, killing 3000 people. They have been gaining power and influence since that day. Islamic holidays have been added to Western calendars. Schools have been transformed into Islamic studies programs. Nations have been transformed into Islamic culture centers. Islam has been proclaimed be an ineradicable part of Western social, cultural and political life. Civilization is being swept away by a tidal wave of antiEnlightenment marked People of the Muslim Faith: "Muslims in the German state of Schleswig-Holstein are set to receive two additional public holidays, while preparations are also underway for Islamic studies to be introduced as a regular subject in schools. These measures are part of an agreement between the Schleswig-Holstein state government and the Northern German Association of Islamic Cultural Centers (VIKZ). According to the Ministry of Culture, officials, employees, and students of the Muslim faith will be able to take time off on the first day of Ramadan and Eid al-Adha. The agreement was signed on September 24 by Minister of Culture Dorit Stenke of the center-right CDU and Murat Pırıldar, chairman of VIKZ. Muhlis Şahin, vice president of the Federal Board of VIKZ, welcomed the step, saying: 'The treaty makes it clear: Islam is a part of our social life. It has taken deep root here and continues to thrive—through people who were born and raised here and who live in this country as their homeland.' Stenke called the contract 'an important sign of recognition and equal treatment of religious communities. People of the Muslim faith are part of our society. We are confirming this with this agreement.' The agreement also lays the groundwork for Islamic religion' to become a regular school subject, though 'certain requirements—such as student numbers and teacher qualifications—must be met for this to happen.'" (German State Grants Muslims Two Public Holidays by Zolta Gyori). Fascism. This religion is an offshoot of Marxism and proclaims that the highest reality is a superhuman controlling power called race, blood, nation and ethnicity. It proclaims to be the opposite of Marxism, while Marxism proclaims to be the opposite of fascism. In actual fact, both religions represent two faces of the same coin, stamped collectivism. Both reject the primacy of the individual and worship in its place a collective entity, but they give it different names. Marxists give it such names as the proletariat, black power and feminism, while fascists give it such names as Aryan supremacy, white nationalism, economic nationalism, right wing populism and antiglobalization. Look at fascists today and see them proclaim that human identity is collective identity and based on culture, and individuals possess no existence or importance in and of themselves: "Germany has a rich cultural heritage. German writers, philosophers, musicians, artists, architects, designers and film producers have made significant contributions on an international scale in each of their respective disciplines. Culture also acts as a brace for a new form of political understanding. Identity is primarily shaped by culture and in itself cannot be left to the free play of forces. Therefore, an awareness needs to be cultivated which recognizes, fosters and protects the bond between culture and identity. The AfD believes that the link between education, culture and identity is of paramount importance for the development of society." (Manifesto For Germany: The Political Program Of The Alternative For Germany, website). Look at fascists today and see them proclaim the primacy of ethnic politics over liberal politics: "The Alternative for Germany (AfD), now the biggest opposition party in the Bundestag, is steadily gaining support, with some polls suggesting that the AfD has pulled ahead of Chancellor Friedrich Merz's conservative Christian Democrats (CDU) and its allied Bavarian Christian Social Union (CSU). In September's municipal elections across North Rhine-Westphalia, Germany's most populous state, the AfD tripled its share of the vote from 2020. Researchers have found that the AfD enjoys particular support among ethnic Germans who resettled from the former Soviet Union and their descendants, people often referred to as Russian Germans. According to a study by the Konrad Adenauer Foundation, 31% of Russia Germans are prepared to vote for the AfD. 'This share is significantly higher than the AfD's average support among Germans with a migrant background, which stands at 19%,' the report read." (The AfD Is Drawing Support From Russian Germans by Sergei Satanovskii). Christianity. This religion proclaims, like Islam, that the highest reality is a superhuman controlling power called God who resides in heaven. Look at a resurgent Christian movement today achieve the removal of abortion as constitutional right in America. On June 24, 2022, five justices of the United States Supreme Court signaled their fealty to the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith of the Catholic Church and decided that "The Constitution does not confer a right to abortion; Roe and Casey are overruled; and the authority to regulate abortion is returned to the people and their elected representatives." (Dobbs versus Jackson Women's Health Organization). They decided that the right to liberty implicitly contained in the Fourteenth Amendment does not mean what it means and the right to liberty does not mean the right to liberty. They decided that A is not A and the right to liberty does not mean the right to liberty because "The Constitution makes no reference to abortion." They decided that states have the right to invade a women's body and outlaw abortion in the name of saving a potential human life appearing at the moment of conception, and not an actual human life, or in the name of protecting actual mystical personhood appearing at the moment of conception, an existence proclaimed by the church. Apocalypse. The stage of late Western culture is crowded with counterfeit coins. They are stamped with insane views of the nature of existence. Marxists proclaim that matter alone exists and mind is an illusion, and that social reality alone exists and individuals possess no meaning or existence. Fascists share the Marxist metaphysics of materialism and collectivist view of human existence. Muslims and Christians proclaim that the physical world possesses inferior value to a nonphysical, nonspatial, nontemporal, nonperceivable supernatural world called God, and that man is a pure mystical mind independent of matter and the senses. These coins possess immense popular appeal and have been minted by the masses by the millions. Passed in exchange for freedom, they have buried civilization.

AMERICA TODAY: TYRANNY COLORED RED AND BROWN

Counterfeiting is a crime dating back to antiquity. Today, the scope is wider, the impact greater, the tools more readily available and the techniques increasingly sophisticated. If left unchecked, the circulation of counterfeit currency can undermine national economies, weaken financial institutions and jeopardize people's livelihoods. It fuels the underground economy and finances the activities of organized criminal networks and terrorists. (Counterfeit Currency And Security Documents, Interpol website). Counterfeiting. The production of money outside the sanction of the state in order to deceive buyers of goods and services. It has occurred since the coinage of money first began in the Iron Age Kingdom of Lydia in 600 BC when base metals were mixed with gold or silver, and it at present has seen the illegal minting of hundreds of millions of dollars and euros. Since the dawn of the twentieth century, a counterfeit ideological coin has been in circulation which has purchased slavery for millions of people throughout the world. Produced in factories manned by Hegelians and Marxists of all stripes and varieties, this counterfeit coin is called collectivism, and after the counterfeit coins stamped with old time Abrahamic religions such as Christianity and Islam, it is most popular counterfeit coin in history. The coin is counterfeit because, like the God of Christianity and Islam, the god called the Collective has no existence in reality, and is a fiction invented by those who cannot cope with the world around them and are beset by problems in living. In the world there exist only individuals, and these individuals possess rights, freedoms and self responsibility. The counterfeit coin called Collectivism has two sides stamped with the two main schools of this religion. One side promotes human enslavement in the name of a gender, race or class, such as blacks, women or the poor, while the other sides promotes human enslavement in the name of a race, nation or ethnicity, such as Aryans, the white race or people of European descent. The first side of the coin is called communism, while the second side is called fascism, and though they proclaim themselves to be diametrical opposites, they are both collectors of human sacrifice. Proceeding from the same Hegelian-Marxist source, their methods and tactics are the same; communists behave like fascists and fascists behave like communists; and both represent left wing and not right wing philosophies, because both reject individual rights and both advocate the enslavement of the individual to the collective. Declaring total war on the traditions and institutions of the Enlightenment, these twin totalitarian movements have assumed control over America by the overwhelming consent of the people, and have transformed it into a nightmare welling up from the depths of hell. The Prince of Darkness rules America today, the former leader of the free world, as it rules every nation in the West, and its armies of communists and fascists are the riders of an apocalypse. The suicide and free fall of the greatest and mightiest of nations is the worst political spectacle of all, and this is the spectacle unfolding in America today. America Today. Look at America today and see communists promote slavery in the name of antifascism. See communists condemn as fascists and nazis all those who promote individual rights and freedoms. See communists condemn Donald Trump as a fascist and nazi because he challenges the communist agenda and seeks to roll back communist confiscatory taxation, suffocating business regulations, cradle to grave welfare security, racist and sexist diversity programs, chromosome denying transgenderism, open borders for Muslims, miscreants and the scum of the earth, and green policies demanding the dismantling of scientific and technological civilization in the name of stopping human induced pollution and global climate change. See communists assassinate prominent, influential freedom fighters such as Charlie Kirk, who drummed up the youth vote across the nation for Donald Trump. See communists worship black supremacy, man hating feminism, and gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender politics as Der Fuhrer. See communists reject the democratic process by seeking to keep Trump off the presidential ballot in 2024. See communists reject free speech and gag Trump through court orders and prevent him from campaigning for president. See communists like Joe Biden ignore Supreme Court rulings and institute federal student loan forgiveness without constitutional sanction. See communists like Joe Biden violate their oath of office to defend the Constitution by allowing millions of illegal aliens to enter and settle in the nation. See communists empower terror gangs to attack law enforcement, immigration agents and people on the streets who support freedom, and reduce cities to wastelands and war zones. See communists attempt to overthrow the government in 2020, conducting nationwide riots, resulting in bloodshed and billions of dollars in property damage, in the name of fighting the fascist, racist, capitalist system of police brutality. See communists advocate state planning and control over the mind, body, economy and every aspect of human existence. See communists proclaim their satanic creed: Everything within the state. Nothing outside the state. Nothing against the state. See communists worship their dictator, Il Duce, called the State and Society. See communists seek to expand the size and scope of the government to infinity and eradicate all forms of private freedom and existence. See communists seek to disarm the people and patrol their thoughts and actions with state rifles. See communists seek to transform schools into indoctrination centers and echo chambers thundering out world revolution. See communists promote Jew hatred and Israel hatred as part of their hatred of capitalism and the West. See communists join hands with national socialists in a campaign to eradicate Jews as hated symbols of Western liberal values. See communist Hitlers and fascist Stalins fight for power over the decayed body of liberal democracy. See communist mayors run cities into the ground with the bulldozers of Islamist, gender, race and class imperialism. See communist and fascist guns, gangs and gauleiters champion statism, collective rights, the rejection of the rule of law, and a global Islamist intifada against one thousand years of human freedom and progress in the West: "Louisiana Governor Huey Long, Democrat and Depression era populist, predicted in 1935, 'When fascism comes to America, it will come under the guise of antifascism.' This prophecy is coming true before our eyes. This year, Democrats are calling everyone who disagrees with them a nazi or a fascist while facilitating evil. Minnesota Governor Tim Walz charges that President Trump is 'a fascist to his core.' Former Vice President

Kamala Harris agrees. Illinois Governor JB Pritzker, Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and the silver tongued Representative Jasmine Crockett, who calls Mr Trump a 'Temu Hitler,' are among the Democrats who have twisted reality to reach the preposterous conclusion that the twice elected president of the United States is Der Fuhrer. Not just Mr Trump but also his supporters are smeared in this ugly fashion. Charlie Kirk's assassin wrote on one of his bullet casings: 'Hey fascist! Catch!' Like Kirk, fascists were famous for their eagerness to debate critics. As a clone of Adolf Hitler, Mr Trump fails miserably. The president never tried to sabotage the democratic process, unlike Democrats, who worked to keep his name off the ballot in several states in 2024 and used lawfare to keep him off the campaign trail. Mr. Trump doesn't ignore the courts, unlike his predecessor, who proceeded with student loan forgiveness after the Supreme Court told him it was unconstitutional. Unlike so many other of our recent presidents, Mr Trump kept his oath of office by securing the border, after 6.7 million entered illegally under Mr Biden. By declaring Antifa a major terrorist organization, Mr Trump is moving decisively against a gang that poses the same threat to America that the Brownshirts did to Weimar Germany. Antifa goons attack police and immigration officials, beat opponents and turn our cities into war zones. Another leftist insurrection was the 2020 riots (20 dead, $2 billion in property damage), which the president's critics either ignored or applauded. The left is following a script that was written in the 1930s, when communists started calling their opponents fascists and presenting themselves as the only alternative to fascism. In reality, the two ideologies are first cousins. Both reject capitalism for a planned economy. (Not for nothing were the nazis called the national socialists). Each believed the interests of the individual must be subordinated to the collective. Italy's fascist dictator, Benito Mussolini, declared: 'Everything within the state. Nothing outside the state. Nothing against the state.' President Franklin D. Roosevelt, a liberal icon, admired Il Duce. Mr Trump wants to reduce the size and scope of government. He wants less taxes and regulation and more private control of the economy, the very opposite of fascism. So, the MAGA crowd are nazis, huh? Nazis who support private ownership of firearms? On coming to power, Hitler confiscated guns from his enemies. Former Representative Beto O'Rourke ('Hell yes, we're going to take your AR-15') would have made a great gauleiter. I'm afraid the left has us dead to rights. We're nazis who want less government, nazis who believe parents should control their children's education and nazis who support Israel and abhor antisemitism. Hitler would have had us expelled from the National Socialist Party. The nazis and communists weren't polar opposites but rather rival gangs that started from the same premises." (Democrats Shout Fascist While Behaving Like Brownshirts by Don Feder). America Today. They wore red uniforms and brown uniforms. Their roles were to protect the meetings of their parties, march in rallies and demonstrations, intimidate opponents, disrupt opponents, kill opponents, and use violence and terror to gain and keep power. They were the League of Red Combatants, a paramilitary organization of the Communist Party, and the Storm Troopers, a paramilitary organization of the National Socialist Party, and in the 1920s, they descended on Weimar Germany. In the twenty first century, they are alive and well in America, dissolving liberal democracy beneath the blazing inferno of totalitarian politics.

WILLIAM BUCKLEY: DESTROYER OF CONSERVATISM

In his life Christ is an example, showing us how to live in his death. He is a sacrifice cleansing our sins in his resurrection. A conqueror in his ascension, a king in his intercession, a high priest. (Martin Luther). High priest: the head of a religious organization. Christianity is replete with high priests. The Second Vatican Council describes Jesus as "the high priest of the new and eternal covenant." In the Catholic Church, the Pope is a high priest; in the Eastern Orthodox Church, the Patriarch is the high priest; and in the Anglican Church, the Archbishop of Canterbury is the high priest. In the mid twentieth century, as the trend toward a second religiousness was accelerating in the West and establishing a new Dark Ages on the ruins of Enlightenment institutions, Christianity was on the march again and produced a new mass movement with a new high priest. This movement was called the Christian Right and its founder and high priest was a writer and commentator named William Buckley. Proclaiming a holy mission given to him by the Catholic Church, Buckley sought to destroy the secular conservative movement in America and base freedom on religion. A quarter of a century before the advent of the Moral Majority, Buckley founded the movement rejecting the rational foundations of capitalism, first proclaimed during the Enlightenment, and sought to base capitalism on faith. Prior to Buckley, the conservative movement, led by such thinkers as Friedrich von Hayak and Ludwig von Mises, had been predominantly secular and did not connect its cause with the Christian God. Buckley's new Christian Rightists proclaimed, in opposition to the prevailing conservative view, that the struggle between individualism and collectivism is a religious struggle and the struggle between Christianity and atheism. It proclaimed that the evil of communism resides not in its denial of individual rights and man's rational nature but in its denial of God. They proclaimed that freedom is devoid of rational, scientific justification, which communism alone possesses, and the only possible justification of freedom resides in the Bible, the papacy and the church. They proclaimed that the struggle against communism is the struggle for religion or else it is a meaningless struggle and is one not worth conducting. High Priest. Look at the life and thought of William Buckley and see an embodiment of devout, fanatical Catholicism. See him promote Catholic values, traditions, bigotry and intolerance and establish an influential political and cultural movement. See him worship his faith and his God as he worships nothing else in life. See him rely on his faith and his God as he relies on nothing else in life. See him reject secularism in schools in favor of Christian bias. See him reject Marxist indoctrination in schools in favor of Christian indoctrination. See him seek to place God and Christian man on university campuses and nobody else. See him seek to replace reason by faith at all levels of education. See him seek to sacrifice secular Enlightenment value systems on the altar of the Catholic Church. See him proclaim that academic freedom means the freedom to promote Christianity and the freedom to promote nothing else. See him proclaim that adherence to Christianity is indispensable for the moral and spiritual development of the human person. See him proclaim that a university education should reject the traditional liberal Enlightenment curriculum centered on reason and the sciences and promote Christian religious principles. See him proclaim that the only antidote to moral relativism is blind acceptance of Catholic Church teachings. See him proclaim that Christianity provides the only possible basis for human justice. See him proclaim that it is God's arbitrary will and not man's inherent nature as a rational animal that gives him dignity and worth. See him proclaim that individual rights and freedoms must be sacrificed on the altar of Christian solidarity, brotherhood and the common good. See him proclaim that reason is compatible with faith only if reason rejects itself and ceases to be reason. See him proclaim that modern Enlightenment based society exalting reason, empiricism, capitalism and individual rights, such as free speech and private property, is evil, sinful, base and ignoble, and must be replaced by the rule of Biblical principles, culture and submission to God: "Wlliam F. Buckley Jr stands as a monumental figure in the American political and cultural landscape. Central to Buckley’s worldview and intellectual foundation was his deeply rooted Catholic faith, which informed not only his personal life but also his public advocacy and philosophical reflections. His parents, particularly his mother, instilled in him a strong religious foundation deeply rooted in Catholic values and traditions, as Bill Jr stated in a letter to his mother at age sixteen: 'Probably the greatest contribution you have given me is your faith. I can now rely on God in almost any matter.' In 1951, he published his first major work, God And Man At Yale, which scathingly critiqued the secular bias and ideological indoctrination prevalent at his time at Yale. From a distinctly Catholic perspective, God and Man at Yale can be viewed through several key lenses: the role of faith in education, the conflict between religious and secular value systems, and the ramifications for intellectual freedom and moral formation. Catholic teaching consistently emphasizes the integration of faith and reason, and it views education as a discipline that informs not only the intellectual but the moral and spiritual development of the human person. Buckley’s critique of Yale’s curriculum and faculty members reflect his belief that a university education should not only impart facts and figures but also cultivate ethical and spiritual foundations grounded in distinctly religious principles. As a Catholic, Buckley conformed to the objective truth revealed through Church teaching and deeply criticized Yale's promotion of moral relativism, which, in Buckley's view, undermined the very essence of justice, solidarity, and human dignity. William F. Buckley Jr's most well known contribution to public life was his long running television program Firing Line, which stands as a hallmark of intellectual discourse and debate in American broadcasting. As a devout Catholic, Buckley believed deeply in the compatibility of faith and reason, using Firing Line as a public square in the American living room to explore complex issues through reasoned dialogue and debate. Buckley saw himself as 'preaching the demands of the Church in the secular realm' through his considerable literary output, including God and Man at Yale, the prestigious conservative organ National Review, and his television program Firing Line. Buckley's son Christopher said this about his father: 'His faith was the molten core of his being and I think you could extrapolate from that everything about my father.' And it is Buckley's faith that sustained, inspired, and guided him to the measured heights and considerable cultural and political influence that he achieved throughout his remarkable life. Buckley's life, work and thought still reverberate with profound influence into the present day as he inspires us to engage courageously in public life while upholding the objective principles of justice, solidarity and the common good. Buckley always had great eloquence, so I'd like to leave you with a quote from him about the need to reorientate modern society toward biblical principles—which continues to be very relevant today: 'What has happened in two generations, is the substantial alienation of secular culture from biblical culture. Free speech and private property are terrific, but they do not deal with the great eras of life. The rediscovery of sin as defined in the Bible would cause us to look up and note the infinite horizons that beckon us toward better conduct, better lives, nobler visions.' " (William F. Buckley Jr, The St Paul Of The Conservative Movement by Matthew Malone). High Priest. Listen to William Buckley proclaim that the rejection of religion and the embrace of reason is a mark of mental and spiritual bankruptcy and barrenness. Religion alone gives meaning to human life and alone is the basis for human freedom. The rational case for freedom is a product of intellectual arrogance. The only basis for freedom and antistatism is the existence of God. The right to live and work for oneself, and the right not to be instrumentalized as a sacrificial lamb in the service of others, is evil and ignoble, because the Bible commands altruism: "The great public crises in Ayn Rand's career came, in my judgment, when Whittaker Chambers took her on—in December of 1957, when her book Atlas Shrugged was dominating the bestseller list, lecturers were beginning to teach something called Randism, and students started using such terms as 'mysticism of the mind' (religion) and 'mysticism of the muscle' (statism). Whittaker Chambers, whose authority with American conservatives was as high as that of any man then living, wrote in National Review, after a lengthy analysis of the essential aridity of Miss Rand's philosophy: 'Out of a lifetime of reading, I can recall no other book in which a tone of overriding arrogance was so implacably sustained. Its shrillness is without reprieve. Its dogmatism is without appeal.' The Fountainhead, read in a certain way, is a profound assertion of the integrity of art. What did Miss Rand in was her anxiety to theologize her beliefs. She was an eloquent and persuasive antistatist, and if only she had left it at that, but no. She had to declare that God did not exist, that altruism was despicable, that only self interest is good and noble. She risked, in fact, giving to capitalism that bad name that its enemies have done so well in giving it; and that is a pity. Miss Rand was a talented woman devoted to her ideals. She came to this country as a refugee from communism and carved out a substantial career. May she rest in peace, and may she experience the demystification of her mind possessed." (Ayn Rand, R.I.P. by William Buckley). High Priest. The enemies of reason went on the march against civilization in the twentieth century. The Marxist Left commenced its march at the dawn of the century, and would over the decades enact welfare regulatory states and gender, race and class wars across the West. The Christian Right commenced its march in the 1950s under the auspices of William Buckley. This prophet of return, the return of the West to the Christian Dark Ages, redirected and destroyed the conservative movement in America. He transformed it from a movement promoting natural, inalienable, reason based rights which no God or State may revoke, into a movement run by Christian crusaders and God affirmers who proclaimed that true conservatism must be purged of its God deniers. The child of William Buckley decades before Jerry Falwell came on the scene, the Christian Right is celebrating its greatest victory to date in the twenty first century. On June 24, 2022, the ghost of William Buckley reared its head in the United States Supreme Court. On that day, five Buckleyites, five Christian Rightists, five voices from the distant past, proclaimed the following: "The Constitution does not confer a right to abortion; Roe and Casey are overruled; and the authority to regulate abortion is returned to the people and their elected representatives." (Dobbs versus Jackson Women's Health Organization). Channelling Buckley and his movement, the Supreme Court proclaimed that the right to liberty implicitly contained in the Fourteenth Amendment does not mean what it means, and the right to liberty does not mean the right to liberty. It proclaimed that A is not A and the right to liberty does not mean the right to liberty because "The Constitution makes no reference to abortion." It proclaimed that states have the right to invade a women's body and outlaw abortion in the name of saving a potential human life appearing at the moment of conception, and not an actual human life, or else in the name of protecting actual mystical personhood appearing at the moment of conception, an existence proclaimed by the church. On June 24, 2022, seeds planted over the decades by the Christian Right yielded a bitter harvest which, along with William Buckley's Marxist coreligionists, is poisoning America.

COLORADO REDS KIDNAP TINA PETERS

Political prisoners are defined as individuals that are convicted and incarcerated in politically biased trials. Trials are deemed politically biased if they are endorsed by the government and (a) lack a domestic legal basis, (b) violate principles of procedural justice, or (c) violate universal human rights. (Who Is A Political Prisoner? by Christoph Valentin Steinert, Journal of Global Security Studies). Political prisoners: people imprisoned for their political activities defending truth and justice before criminal power. Political prisoners: people imprisoned for their thoughts and actions seeking to uphold the rule of law. Political prisoners: tragic victims of the tyrannies which have scarred the history of mankind since time immemorial, victims whose ranks have reached from Socrates to Galileo to Alexander Solzhenitsyn to Ne1son Mandela. Tina Peters. On August 12, 2024, a former County Clerk and Recorder in Mesa, Colorado joined these ranks and became a hero and martyr for the cause of free and fair elections. On this day, Tina Peters was sent to jail for nine years because she had sought to document Democrat Party fraud which got Joe Biden elected in 2020. Because she had sought to protect federal election records from imminent erasure by Democrat Party officials. Because copying hard drives fell under her Constitutional duty to ensure election integrity, her duty under the Fourteenth Amendment preventing states from infringing upon the rights of United States citizens, and under Article VI, establishing that the Constitution is the supreme law of the land and takes precedence over state laws. Because she had been a whistleblower exposing rigged election machinery. Because she had exposed corrupt Dominion Voting Systems machines proven to be corrupt by a software expert and national elections coordinator in Venezuela, who had used them to rig elections for Hugo Chavez and Nicolas Maduro, machines which had been utilized in sixty two counties in Colorado. Because the Marxist Democrat political establishment in Colorado had sought to cover up 2020 election illegalities: "While the country is all agog about the indictment of the blatantly treasonous criminal, James Comey, news came out about the Mesa County, CO, case of their former election supervisor, Tina Peters. This week, a surprise filing, admitted by the court, corroborates Tina Peters' claims about the rigged election machinery, and validates Tina's preservation of documents in Mesa County after the 2020 election. We do not yet know the source of that filing. This is exceptionally good news, as Tina Peters has been jailed by the communists in Colorado for daring to reveal the problems she found with the Dominion voting machines in her county. She was trusting enough to believe Colorado would care. The evidence she produced was more than they could take. This surprise filing was testimony from a Venezuelan voting machine software expert about the Smartmatic AND Dominion (used by 62 counties in Colorado) voting machinery. He had worked with both systems, for the Venezuelan government from 2003–2016, in the rigging of elections there. The Venezuelan expert, based on his own personal knowledge, computer expertise, work he did for the Venezuelan government and examination of the saved image records from Tina Peters, this witness has made a direct statement: 'Colorado elections are just as insecure as those in Venezuela.' He should know. This man served as the national elections coordinator in Venezuela for a number of years. In this position, he configured and managed Smartmatic equipment used in their elections. He organized election 'war rooms,' audits, and managed data centers throughout the country. He states that Dominion voting machines used in 62 counties in CO, have the 'same structure and vulnerabilities' as do the Smartmatic ones with which he worked in Venezuela. Bad news for the Marxists in Colorado, great news for Tina Peters. Tina is a 70 year old Gold Star Mom, who was working as Mesa County's clerk. She was jailed by the Colorado court in 2024, found guilty of seven counts (including four felonies!) related to unauthorized access to voting equipment in an attempt to uncover 2020 election fraud and has been incarcerated ever since. We hear that her health is failing. President Trump cannot issue a pardon for Tina Peters as hers is not a federal matter, but his DOJ filed a statement of interest in the case, in March 2025, and the President has, twice, asked for her release. It is not yet known how and exactly when the Colorado court allowed the Venezuelan's expert testimony to be filed with the Tina Peters case. What I have given you here today is from a 9/25 podcast from Emerald Robinson on X. As this is published, I can find no more information on the subject, but I wanted you to have hope for her case, which has stricken so many Americans as a blatant attack on our rights. America cares about Tina. Well, the election fraud she sought to expose has just been caught in the bright light of truth, it seems, and I could not be happier. I know most of America will feel the same." (Venezuelan Voting Machine Busted! Lifeline for Tina Peters? by Kat Stansell). Tina Peters. Tina Peters was sent to jail because she had been the custodian of election records and had a state duty to preserve them for twenty five months. Because she had exposed the deletion of election records from Mesa County's machines, in violation of state and federal laws. The state of Colorado condemned her attempt to obey state and federal laws by making a copy of the information in her central election computer, as the commission of the following charges: attempting to influence a public servant, conspiracy to commit criminal impersonation, first degree official misconduct, violation of duty, and failing to comply with the secretary of state. They shackled her, dragged her from court and locked her up for doing her federal duty: "One of the most high profile examples of the government's prosecution of the innocent is former Mesa County Clerk, Tina Peters. Following the 2020 election, Tina Peters received notice from the Colorado Secretary of State, Jenna Griswold, that Dominion Voting Systems would be visiting her office to install a 'trusted build' on her election system. The 'trusted build' would overwrite the data that was stored on her computers. As the elected County Clerk and Recorder, Peters was the custodian of the election records and had a duty to preserve them for twenty five months. So, Peters had a copy made of her central election computer to ensure that the records would be preserved prior to the 'trusted build.' She also made another copy of the machine after the 'trusted build.' When the 'before' copy of the original election files was analyzed by experts, it was discovered that the original election database was abandoned and a new database was created inside the software while the 2020 election was ongoing. In other words, it was like the Dominion software was keeping two sets of books on the election. The 'after' copy of the database showed that Dominion had in fact deleted election records from the county's machines, breaking state and federal law. Mesa County District Attorney, Dan Rubinstein conducted a nontechnical investigation into the claims made by the experts and declared the anomalies inside the Dominion database to be caused by 'human error' –a claim that has since been debunked. For the sin of preserving Mesa County's election records, Peters was charged and convicted of three counts of attempting to influence a public servant, conspiracy to commit criminal impersonation, first degree official misconduct, violation of duty, and failing to comply with the secretary of state. The jury acquitted Peters of criminal impersonation, conspiracy to commit criminal impersonation, and identity theft." (Colorado Officials Persecuting Tina Peters Worked for Dominion by Joe Hoft). Tina Peters. Tina Peters was sent to jail because of her political speech, in violation of the First Amendment. Because of her ideas, predictions and influence, all of which are protected by the First Amendment. Because she had sought to protect election data before they were erased by the state, and ballots falsified under the cover of providing software updates. Because she had obeyed federal election law and sought ensure that election records were intact and elections were honest. Because she had sought to show the public what a stolen election looks like and make the public aware of the unconstitutional government under which they live: "What was expected to be the quiet dismissal of Tina Peters' federal habeas petition—challenging a state court ruling that denied her bond—became one of the most dramatic legal turnarounds in recent memory, as Trump attorney Peter Ticktin and his team delivered a precise, devastating First Amendment argument that stopped the court in its tracks. The federal court in Colorado—now entertaining jurisdiction under a habeas corpus petition—has formally agreed to receive refined constitutional arguments by this Friday, July 25, focused exclusively on whether Tina Peters is being unlawfully imprisoned for her political speech—a violation of her First Amendment rights that, if confirmed, could result in her immediate release on bond. American hero Tina Peters remains in prison after her lawyers asked the state court judge for release while her appeal is pending—a request that was originally denied by Judge Matthew Barrett, who was the trial judge in Colorado state court. Tina Peters' legal team then appealed that denial to the Colorado Court of Appeals, and they said no as well. Next, her legal team turned to federal court in Denver, Colorado, seeking a writ of habeas corpus—Latin for 'produce the body'—which allows federal judges to review unlawful detentions. The foundation of yesterday's breakthrough lies in the very words used by the Colorado judge who sentenced Tina Peters in October 2024. Judge Matthew Barrett, the trial judge in the Colorado state court, didn't simply punish her for her conduct. He explicitly cited her ongoing political speech as justification for denying her bond and keeping her in prison—a rationale now under direct constitutional challenge in federal court. Barrett stated in open court: 'You betrayed your oath for no one other than you. And this is what makes Ms Peters such a danger to our community.' He also called her a 'charlatan,' and compared the damage of her continued public statements about election fraud to the damage caused by physical violence. That kind of reasoning—punishing someone for their ideas, predictions, or potential influence—crosses a constitutional line. It touches on predictive harm tied to public communication, and that's precisely the kind of government action the First Amendment was designed to prohibit. Adding urgency to yesterday's developments are recent statements by Tulsi Gabbard, now serving as the Director of National Intelligence, who has publicly alleged that former President Barack Obama was directly involved in election interference in 2016—and possibly again in 2020. These allegations give even more weight to Tina Peters' actions in Mesa County, where she took steps to preserve Dominion Voting System data before it could be wiped during a state directed software update. Her intent, now more than ever, appears clear: to follow federal election law, protect the integrity of the records, and raise public awareness of vulnerabilities in the system. And for that—she's in prison." (Federal Court Reopens Tina Peters Case After First Amendment Bombshell From Trump Attorney Peter Ticktin and His Team by Jason Sullivan). Tina Peters. In the twenty first century, an image haunts America. It is the image of a lighted candle encircled by a barbed wire fence. The image signifies the struggles of America's new class of political prisoners chained up in darkness by the Marxist cultural and political establishment. This class included those who stormed the Bastille of Marxist election fraud on January 6, 2021 in an attempt to stop the Electoral Count vote, force Congress and Vice President Mike Pence to overturn the fraudulent election of Joe Biden, and overthrow an illegal government headquartered in the United States Capital Building. Since August 12, 2025, this class has included a fearless whistleblower, protector of elections, exposer of crimes and sacrificial lamb burning on the altar of Marxist political power. She was born on September 11, 1955. She was the Clerk and Recorder of Mesa County, Colorado, from 2019 to 2023. Her name is Tina Peters.

THE MARXIST UNIVERSE

The Caterpillar and Alice looked at each other for some time in silence: at last the Caterpillar took the hookah out of its mouth, and addressed her in a languid, sleepy voice. 'Who are you?' said the Caterpillar. This was not an encouraging opening for a conversation. Alice replied, rather shyly, 'I—I hardly know, Sir, just at present—at least I know who I was when I got up this morning, but I think I must have been changed several times since then.' 'What do you mean by that?' said the Caterpillar, sternly. 'Explain yourself!' 'I can't explain myself, I'm afraid, Sir,' said Alice, 'because I'm not myself, you see.' 'I don't see,' said the Caterpillar. 'I'm afraid I can't put it more clearly,' Alice replied, very politely, 'for I can't understand it myself, to begin with; and being so many different sizes in a day is very confusing.' 'It isn't,' said the Caterpillar. 'Well, perhaps you haven't found it so yet,' said Alice; 'but when you have to turn into a chrysalis— you will some day, you know—and then after that into a butterfly, I should think you'll feel it a little queer, won't you?' 'Not a bit,' said the Caterpillar. 'Well, perhaps your feelings maybe different,' said Alice: 'all I know is, it would feel very queer to me.' 'You!' said the Caterpillar contemptuously. 'Who are you?' Which brought them back again to the beginning of the conversation. (Alice's Adventures In Wonderland by Lewis Carroll). This masterpiece of the literary nonsense genre by Lewis Carroll, delighting audiences in 175 languages since 1865, adapted to screen, radio, television, ballet, opera, and musical theater, theme parks, board games and video games, was a terrifying reality in a netherworld known as the East Bloc. It was the nightmare reality of a universe created by the number one religion ruling the world in its various forms and manifestations since the dawn of the twentieth century, a religion responsible for the enslavement and death of over one hundred million people. This religion, this universe, this nightmare is called Marxism, and a look inside it is a look inside a mind distorted by disorder and disease and existing beyond all recognition. Marxism is the greatest mental disorder and disease in the history of mankind, and its popularity with the masses since the dawn of the twentieth century has been a signpost, blazing out with ever increasing intensity, pointing into the collapse of civilization. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world ruled by special, higher, mystical laws of antilogic called dialectics. According to these dialectical laws, reality is pure change and motion in which there are no entities which change or move from anything to anything else, and nothing is as it is. It is a world in which opposites merge in pure change and motion, A is non A, and a thing both is and is not something at once and in the same respect. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which there is no universal truth, reality or laws of logic and reality is splintered and fragmented along class lines, and there is a proletarian reality and a bourgeois reality, a proletarian truth and a bourgeois truth, and a proletarian logic and a bourgeois logic. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which there is no such thing as mind or intellect, everything is matter in motion, and all wealth is held to be created by mindless, animal, proletarian muscle labor. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which there are no individuals possessing rights, freedoms or dignity all their own, and the mystical collective, state, team and social organism is held to possess all rights, and individuals are held to be completely expendable in order to advance the needs and interests of the whole. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which morality is held to be social and egalitarian in nature, and individuals possessing greater intelligence, talent and ability are sacrificed to those possessing less, and wealth is distributed equally to all individuals. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which arbitrary state power changes rules and laws from moment to moment without any rational ground or justification, and people live in constant fear wondering when the next decree will come down and what it will be. Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which the defenders of antiMarxist philosophies are killed. A world of force, terror and uncontrollable desires to commit acts of commit violence in the service of the people's religion. A world in which madness, chromosome denying transgender madness, national socialist style race and gender madness, and freedom negating statist madness, is enforced at the point of a gun. A world regimented by totalitarian lockstep, the silencing of free speech, unthinking fundamentalism, the assassination of political opponents, and an ideological echo chamber which has shouted down all that it fears and hates, shouted down the voices of freedom and civilization: "The left is evil. The left is a gang of terrorists. If you have any lingering doubt about that, consider this: first they were celebrating the murder of Charlie Kirk, but now leftists are making those celebrations look practically innocent. Hit lists have begun to appear on social media, as bloodthirsty leftists indulge their fantasies about which of their designated enemies they would like to see murdered next. And yes, there is no doubt whatsoever that the people who are openly displaying their bloodlust in this way think all the while that they occupy the moral high ground. The Center Square reported recently that 'in the wake of the assassination of Turning Point USA founder Charlie Kirk, thousands of social media posts appear to list politically conservative targets for assassination by the political left.' Some of the principal names that keep recurring on the left's death wish lists are some of the most prominent critics of the transgender madness: Joe Rogan, JK Rowling, Ben Shapiro, and Matt Walsh, as well as President Donald Trump, Libs of TikTok's Chaya Raichik, Elon Musk, and Andy Ngo. JK Rowling pointed out what this bloodlust revealed about the left: 'If you believe free speech is for you but not your political opponents, you're illiberal. If no contrary evidence could change your beliefs, you're a fundamentalist. If you believe the state should punish those with contrary views, you're a totalitarian. If you believe political opponents should be punished with violence or death, you're a terrorist.' Indeed. And that is exactly what the left is today. 'Inside every progressive is a totalitarian screaming to get out,' quipped the late, great David Horowitz, and by now, it's abundantly clear that they're out. Totalitarians don't care to debate their opponents, and in particular on the transgender issue, leftists likely know that they would lose, and lose resoundingly, any such debate. And so they want those whom they fear and hate to be silenced, and silenced for good." (Leftists Are Now Posting Hit Lists Of The People They Want To Murder Next by Robert Spencer). Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world which denies the facts of reality and the biological basis of sex determination. It is a world which enforces the religion that human sex can be changed by human will, and human sex is not real but is transgender, nonbinary and intersex. It is a world in which males can transform into females and females can transform into males, and transgender females are as real as real females, and transgender males are as real as real males. It is a world in which psychotic individuals who proclaim they are members of the opposite sex are granted full legal recognition as those members in the name of equality, dignity, respect, fundamental rights and the "lived experiences" of these individuals: "The European Union is once again targeting one of its own member states for defending traditional values. This time it is Slovakia, whose recent constitutional amendment--passed on September 26--recognizes only two biological sexes and limits child adoption to married heterosexual couples. According to Slovak authorities, the measure seeks to safeguard the interests of the child and reinforce the family as the basic unit of society. Brussels, however, has condemned it as a 'threat to fundamental rights.' The EU's Fundamental Rights Agency (FRA), based in Vienna, issued a harsh statement warning that the reform 'undermines the principles of equality, human dignity, and respect' enshrined in the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights. The FRA criticized the definition of sex as 'male or female, biologically determined,' claiming it ignores the 'lived experiences' of transgender, nonbinary, and intersex individuals." (Brussels Condemns Slovakia's 'Two Sexes' Constitutional Reform by Javier Villamor). Marxism. The world of Marxism is a world in which the opponents of Marxism are hammered to death and reduced to a bloody pulp. It is world in which hoodlums and terrorists killing and maiming in the service of the cause are shielded by governments, granted refuge in parliaments and granted immunity from the law: "Notorious Italian leftist MEP Ilaria Salis, accused of participating in attacks organized by the Antifa linked Hammerbande (Hammer Gang) will not go on trial in Hungary thanks to members of the European Parliament who today, on October 7th, ratified the legal affairs committee's to maintain her immunity. Salis' immunity was supported by a majority of just one—306 MEPs voting for it and 305 against—in the secret ballot. German MEP Mary Khan (AfD) said those who requested that the vote be private were 'cowards.' Her colleague, Tomasz Froelich, added that Salis was presumably 'saved by the votes of the EPP, which also includes the CDU'—that is, the party of German Chancellor Friedrich Merz and said 'Christian Democrats as accomplices of left wing terrorists—a new low!' Italian Lega/Patriots for Europe MEP Isabella Tovaglieri said that Salis, who was arrested and imprisoned in Hungary in 2023, had been shielded 'thanks to the usual left wing deals, with the complicity of some EPP members,' meaning that she is 'effectively above the law.' Tovaglieri described this as 'a terrible image for the European Union.' " (One Vote In The European Parliament Saves 'Hammer Girl' Ilaria Salis From Trial by Michael Curzon). Marxism. Over two centuries ago, a girl named Alice fell through a rabbit hole and fell into a fantasy world dominated by human looking creatures and brazen illogic. Lewis Carroll's classic story has never been out of print, and among its thousands of editions is a special Marxist edition, published in the twentieth century. This was a special edition on two counts. First it had sprung into actuality from the pages of the original fictional story, and second, far from delighting audiences, it made them flee for their lives before human looking monsters. This Marxist nightmare, this East Bloc nightmare, this national socialist nightmare, this Stalinist nightmare and Hitlerian nightmare, this proletarian logic, Aryan logic and polylogic nightmare, this gender, race and class nightmare, has closed the story of the West.

THE ENLIGHTENMENT AND ITS ENEMIES

If there is something you know, communicate it. If there is something you don't know, search for it. Thus spoke the Encyclopedia, a seminal work published in an age of liberation. Above these immortal words is an engraving, showing Truth surrounded by light and unveiled by Philosophy and Reason. This was an age of liberation of the mind from the shackles of religion and it swept through the West. In coffeehouses, literary salons, scientific academies, and a print culture of books, journals and pamphlets, the Age of Enlightenment, commencing in the seventeenth century, blasted the Dark Ages throne of faith sky high and established the rule of science and sanity. Proclaiming the separation of church and state, rejecting belief without reason or evidence, and exalting the empirical method of observation and experiment, the Age of Enlightenment was Western man's spiritual and intellectual declaration of independence, and it laid the foundations of the scientific and technological civilization which is the glory of the West. Illuminated by such lights as Galileo, Voltaire, Johannes Kepler, Francis Bacon, Pierre Gassendi, Christiaan Huygens, Isaac Newton, Edward Gibbon, John Locke and Thomas Paine, the Age of Enlightenment launched a frontal assault on religion which solidified mental health and well being across the West. Enlightenment. Listen to the voices of the Enlightenment proclaim that religion, irrational, unscientific and nonempirical, is the study of nothing: "The study of theology, as it stands in Christian churches, is the study of nothing; it is founded on nothing; it rests on no principles; it proceeds by no authorities; it has no data; it can demonstrate nothing; and it admits of no conclusion. Nothing can be studied as a science without our being in possession of the principles upon which it is founded; and as this nonpossession is the case with Christian theology, it is therefore the study of nothing." (The Age of Reason by Thomas Paine). Enlightenment. Listen to the voices of the Enlightenment exalt the temples of reason in place of the religious cathedrals of fear and control: "I do not believe in the creed professed by the Jewish church, by the Roman church, by the Greek church, by the Turkish [Muslim] church, by the Protestant church, nor by any church that I know of. My own mind is my own church. All national institutions of churches, whether Jewish, Christian, or Turkish [Muslim], appear to me no other than human inventions set up to terrify and enslave mankind, and monopolize power and profit." (The Age of Reason by Thomas Paine). Enlightenment. Listen to the voices of the Enlightenment condemn religion as absurd, impossible, unproved and unprovable: "Of all the systems of religion that ever were invented, there is no more unedifying to man, more repugnant to reason, and more contradictory to itself than this thing called Christianity. Too absurd for belief, too impossible to convince, and too inconsistent for practice, it renders the heart torpid or produces only fanatics. As an engine of power, it serves the purpose of despotism, and as a means of wealth, the avarice of priests, but so far as respects the good of man in general it leads to nothing here or hereafter." (The Age of Reason by Thomas Paine). AntiEnlightenment. The Age of Enlightenment was succeeded by the Age of Romanticism, exalting subjectivity, passion, intuition and imagination in place of the perception of reality, and the West commenced a downward movement leading it back into religion. The movement of regression climaxed in the twentieth century when a full fledged age of second religiousness dawned and brought back the Dark Ages, now with players new and old. The past one hundred and twenty five years have seen galloping advances made by the four horsemen of the apocalypse, War, Conquest, Famine and Death, seeking to make war against, conquer, starve and kill the Enlightenment. Listen to them and hear the sounds of religious shackles clang, come back and take the mind captive. The horsemen driving the West into the apocalypse are the four leading religions ruling the world today: Marxism, Islam, fascism and Christianity. Marxist AntiEnlightenment. Look at the world today and see Marxism spread under the banners of race and gender politics, race and gender discrimination in schools and workplaces, and the racist and sexist achievement of diversity, equity, and inclusion. See it spread under the banners of environmental, social and governance. See it spread under the banners of a green agenda and the curbing of greenhouse gas emissions: "Over 20 Republican state attorneys general sent a letter to President Donald Trump on Tuesday urging him to fight European Union (EU) regulations that 'demand' that diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) and environmental, social, and governance (ESG) standards be 'incorporated into companies.' The attorneys general, led by Florida AG James Uthmeier and West Virginia AG John McCuskey, first thanked Trump for the work he has done 'to bring jobs back to the United States, protect our borders, clean up our streets, hold narcoterrorists accountable, remove the scourge of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) policies from our universities, and push back against the Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) regime that puts the woke green agenda ahead of hard working Americans.' 'Your Administration had made great progress combating ESG and DEI initiatives,' the letter stated, before bringing the bad news. 'We write, however, because the European Union is poised to implement its corporate sustainability directive, which will impose sweeping ESG and DEI requirements on American companies. These requirements are directly opposed to your administration's priorities and to our country's law.' The EU's corporate sustainability directive's disclosure requirements are part of its 'radical green agenda,' with the attorneys general saying its purpose is to 'disincentivize fossil fuels, investment, and economic growth, and to put bureaucrats in Brussels in charge of policies directing American operations.' 'This cannot stand,' the letter continued to tell Trump. 'You have successfully fought similar European Union regulations in the past, and American companies need you to champion them again.' " (22 Republican AGs Call On Trump To Fight European Union Regulations by Olivia Rondeau). Islamic AntiEnlightenment. Look at the world today and see Islam spread under the banners of multiculturalism. See it spread by an invasion of imams and Palestinian migrants. See it spread by a proliferation of mosques preaching world revolution. See it spread bankrolled by Qatar and the Muslim Brotherhood. See it spread by government funding for Islamic Shiites, subversives, radicals, hardliners, hoodlums, and daycare indoctrination centers: "Multicultural neighbourhoods in Berlin are now home to Islamic imams giving marriage counselling to underage girls following a mass influx of Palestinians and other hardline Muslim migrants, an integration officer has claimed. Guner Balci, a Turkish born integration officer for the Berlin borough of Neukolln, told news magazine Der Spiegel that she has moved out of the neighbourhood where she grew up in the German capital so that her 'daughter could develop freely' after the area became a hotbed for Islamism. Balci said that when she grew up in Neukolln, there was only one mosque, but now around 30 are located in the area, many of which she claimed preach adherence to hardline Islam. 'I know of imams who offer marriage counselling for 14 year old girls and find it acceptable for a man to take a second wife. If you look behind the structures, you quickly see: Ah, one mosque is financed from Qatar, the other has connections to the Islamist Muslim Brotherhood and so on,' she told the paper. Balci, who is tasked with helping migrants integrate into Berlin society, said that the area has seen 'culturally and religiously determined gender separation' established and enforced by clan criminals and radical imams. She said that it 'began with the influx of Palestinian families from Lebanon' in the 1980s and has only continued to grow since. The Berlin integration officer said that politicians often fail to recognize what is happening before it's too late to stop the process of transformation. Sometimes the government is even complicit, she said, claiming that a radical Shiite mosque in Neukolln is currently constructing a daycare center with state funding." (Imam 'Marriage Counselling' For Underage Girls, Polygamy Spreading In Berlin Amid Islamist Immigration, Says Integration Officer by Kurt Zindulka). Fascist AntiEnlightenment. Look at the world today and see fascism spread under the banners of populism, democracy, national sovereignty and opposition to the European Union. See fascists proclaim that the only antidote to the Marxist policies dominant in the European Union are policies of white racism, white ethnicism and economic nationalism: "European populist parties from ten EU member states joined forces at a summit in Madrid on Saturday, vowing to protect the national sovereignty of their corresponding countries against the long arm of Brussels. Representatives of ten populist parties in Europe, including Prime Minister of Hungary Victor Orban, Prime Minister of Poland Mateusz Morawiecki and leader of the National Rally Marine Le Pen, signed a joint agreement in Madrid, reaffirming their original commitment to aid each other in protecting the sovereignty of their nations. The signing of this document and the original forming of the political alliance in July 2021, comes in response to the 'growing threat' perceived by the ten populist parties 'that seeks to transform the [European] Union into an ideologically charged federalist superstate.' The attendees of the Spanish summit, which was hosted by Vox leader Santiago Abascal, said that the encroachment of Brussels is detrimental to European democracy and claimed it could represent the downfall of Europe. In the document titled The Basis For Common Cultural And Political Work, Respecting The Role Of Current Political Groups, the ten parties highlighted their concerns about Brussels' 'imposed ideologies' that lacked 'democratic legitimacy.' " (Populist Coalition: Orban, Le Pen, Morawiecki Vow To Defend National Sovereignty from EU Overreach by Nathaniel Charles). Christian AntiEnlightenment. Look at the world today and see a resurgent Christianity rear its head and speak through five voices on the United States Supreme Court. On June 24, 2022, five voices from the distant past proclaimed the following: "The Constitution does not confer a right to abortion; Roe and Casey are overruled; and the authority to regulate abortion is returned to the people and their elected representatives." (Dobbs versus Jackson Women's Health Organization). Channeling the original Dark Ages, the Supreme Court proclaimed that the right to liberty implicitly contained in the Fourteenth Amendment does not mean what it means, and the right to liberty does not mean the right to liberty. It proclaimed that A is not A and the right to liberty does not mean the right to liberty because "The Constitution makes no reference to abortion." It proclaimed that states have the right to invade a women's body and outlaw abortion in the name of saving a potential human life appearing at the moment of conception, and not an actual human life, or else in the name of protecting actual mystical personhood appearing at the moment of conception, an existence proclaimed by the Christian church. On June 24, 2022, the United States Supreme Court allowed states to violate the First Amendment, breach the separation between church and state championed by the Enlightenment, and reject secular institutions securing human freedom: "The Supreme Court decision in Dobbs v Jackson Women's Health Organization, which reverses the constitutional abortion rights that American women have enjoyed over the past 50 years, has come as a surprise to many voters. A majority, after all, support reproductive rights and regard their abolition as regressive and barbaric. Understood in the context of the movement that created the Supreme Court in its current incarnation, however, there is nothing surprising about it. In fact, it marks the beginning rather than the endpoint of the agenda this movement has in mind. At the core of the Dobbs decision lies the conviction that the power of government can and should be used to impose a certain moral and religious vision--a supposedly biblical and regressive understanding of the Christian religion--on the population at large." (How The Christian Right Took Over The Judiciary And Changed America by Katherine Stewart). The World Today. In the seventeenth century, a brilliant flash of light swept over the West and liberated nations near and far. It outshined all previous ages in the West and illuminated Europe and its colonies with the light of knowledge. It was the same light which had illuminated the nonWestern, Apollonian culture of the ancient Greeks and Romans. But this Western Age of Enlightenment contained the seeds of its own destruction, planted by traitors within its midst. They were planted by Rene Descartes, who brazenly rejected the perception of reality in favor of the perception of consciousness, "the prior certainty of consciousness," and "I think, therefore I am." They were planted by Immanuel Kant, who brazenly denied the reality of space, time and physical objects, and brazenly proclaimed the psychotic's perennial mission of mental destruction: "I have found it necessary to deny knowledge in order to make room for faith." In the late eighteenth century, the Enlightenment finally collapsed under the repeated hammer blows of Cartesian and Kantian subjectivism. In the twenty first century, the rays of the Enlightenment have long since faded and the West is trapped in mental disease and disorder.

CAMPUS COMMUNISTS IN CONTROL

University life was not for him. He experienced thrills and excitement from committing acts of violence and preferred the activism and agitation of the streets. So in October 1929, he dropped out of law school at the prestigious Friedrich Wilhelm University in Berlin and devoted himself full time to the burgeoning national socialist movement. He devoted himself full time to his position as the leader of Storm Section 5 of the National Socialist Party's SA, and one of his subordinates described this restless, reckless, riffraff and hoodlum, whose primary tactic, like that of his communist counterparts, was terror: "Horst made Adolf Hitler's principle his own: terror can be destroyed only by counterterror. The places where the KPD met were often visited by a mere handful of loyal supporters, and our standpoint was made unequivocally clear to the landlord and all who were present. In the East End [of Berlin] Horst Wessel opened up a route through which a brown storm tide poured in unceasingly and conquered the area inch by inch." (Hitler's Berlin: Abused City by Thomas Friedrich). His name was Horst Wessel and he was a poster boy for national socialism, its cult of hate and its program of destruction. Entering law school in 1926 at the age of nineteen and dropping out at twenty two, he spent his brief university time as a hoodlum in the guise of a student, and in the twenty first century, his fraud has been replicated in universities across the West, and reduced them to agitation and propaganda centers in the service of Horst Wessel's brother religion. Eighty years after the fall of the Third Reich, German universities which had disgraced themselves by serving as transmission belts for national socialism have come alive and now operate in every nation in the West. Only the flags have changed while the hoodlum character has remained the same. Eighty years after Germany's swastikas crashed into the streets and the nation hoisted the white flag of surrender, the swastikas have been reappeared in a different form and the white flag has been replaced by a flag of victory. The new form is the hammer and sickle, and a triple gorgon Marxist monster has captured the Western cultural and political establishment, and transformed universities into echo chambers thundering out gender, race and class politics. Like German universities under the Third Reich, today's universities are assembly lines mass producing hoodlums dedicated to the overthrow of Enlightenment traditions and institutions and the burning of all their books. Universities Today. Universities today have rejected the traditional liberal arts curriculum in favor of indoctrination in mystical notions of social justice which deny the existence of flesh and blood individuals. They promote tribal justice for blacks, women, gays, lesbians, transgenders and the poor in place of natural, individual justice. They promote blind acceptance of ideological authority in place of critical thinking skills. They promote apriori theories in place of empirical investigation They promote mental lockstep in place of learning how to reason. They promote Marxist pedagogy, book reading and essay writing. They promote the Marxist literary canon in place of the Western liberal literary canon. They promote Marxist social media content. They promote Marxist captions, reals and scripts spelling out sabotage and subversion. They promote literature generated by Marxist language models and chat robots. They promote literature featuring Marxist artificial intelligence summaries. They promote Marxist videos and films. They condemn capitalism as a regime of racism, sexism, and economic oppression and exploitation. They teach students to renounce the study of Western, liberal Enlightenment literature and ideals. They teach students that good writing is Marxist writing and nothing else. They teach students that good writing shouts out Marxist political phrases and slogans from every paragraph and page. They teach students that the highest form of creative literary expression is that which is channeled into politics and advocates gender, race and class revolution. They proclaim that good literature is standard, undeviating, politically correct, Marxist literature. They proclaim that good literature studies the human condition from the Marxist point of view. They proclaim that good writing is synonymous with Marxist hate mongering. They proclaim that a progressive education teach students how to cultivate Marxist speaking and writing habits. They proclaim that Marxist literature is the most readable literature one can find and there is no such thing as Marxist literature which is unreadable. They proclaim that good literature overflows with the latest Marxist jargon. They proclaim that a progressive education teaches Marxist political literary and no other form of literacy. They proclaim that a progressive education teach students that all essays advocating Marxism are by definition well written essays and are never poorly written. They proclaim that a progressive English language arts education is a training course in Marxist book reading, essay writing, ideological thinking, political campaigning and criminal attacks launched under the guise of popular liberation: "Almost exactly a year ago, the Atlantic ran a piece about the decline of reading comprehension skills among Ivy League students, citing Columbia professor Nicholas Dames's observations that, in contrast to students from just several years ago, his incoming freshmen are no longer able to sit through a book in its entirety. Dames's words sparked a national debate on student literacy, which I have been both closely following and engaging with over the past year. And while I am the last person to brush off claims that students are no longer reading books—they certainly aren't—I've started to notice that it's not that students aren't reading but that they aren't reading the right things. The problem begins in the English classroom, where cries for social justice have largely supplanted the liberal arts curriculum. The first stated value of English Language Arts education from the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), for instance, is not increasing literacy or even promoting critical thinking skills, but 'to identify and disrupt the inequalities of contemporary life, including structural racism, sexism, consumerism, and economic injustice.' The NCTE, an organization responsible for guiding English literature pedagogy and curriculum choices since 1911, chose to renounce literature in 2022, writing, 'the time has come to decenter book reading and essay writing as the pinnacles of English language arts education.' The resulting catastrophe could not be more apparent. Gone are the days when the students I tutor in English come to me with essays on Macbeth or even The Catcher In The Rye. Instead, out of the twenty or so students that I work with every year in a private tutoring capacity, three have come to me with term papers on Born A Crime by former Daily Show host Trevor Noah, and four have been assigned the quasireadable writing of Ta-Nehisi Coates. Now, one might argue that there is value in reading more broadly than the staples of the Western literary canon, but to feed students of English literature overtly politically charged writing without ever once introducing them to Shakespeare completely skews their perception of what literature really should be—an avenue for exploring the human condition through the medium of the written word. What happens as a result is that students miss out not only on the beauty of good writing—Neither

Noah nor Coates could string a legible English sentence together if their very survival depended on it—but also on valuable ideas that stretch far beyond social justice. Taught to think of writing as an avenue for social justice activism, students rarely choose to read books on their own time outside of the classroom, resorting instead to biased news articles and performative political activism on social media, where buzzwords prevail over well thought out ideas. Many of my students actually do read, therefore, but what they read is not literature or even bad YA fiction, but anything that purports to fight for justice. This pull towards activism, which, in their minds, is the same as English literature, often takes them to social media, especially TikTok and Instagram, where such activism is the most performative. And because social media is designed to be addictive, these students spend their after school evenings reading captions about social justice and skimming through poorly written reel scripts with grammatical errors. The best part is that ChatGPT now writes the majority of this content, so it all sounds exactly the same. Pair that with the fact that students complete most of their homework with the help of AI, and you get a complete crisis in literacy: students are reading, but they are reading mostly AI written slop. Don't believe me? Spend a minute scrolling through Instagram reel captions and you'll see my point. Almost all of these captions sound like they were written by the exact same person—or a robot in this case—whether the videos discuss something as charged as politics or something as benign as gardening. Captions are littered with extraneous emdashes and hackneyed phrases such as 'but here's the kicker.' And we all know that you are what you read—the more students interact with ChatGPT generated writing, the more they will internalize its standardized phrasing and adapt it in their own writing. Heck, I almost found myself wanting to use the phrase 'but here's the kicker' in this very essay because I, too, read an overwhelming amount of ChatGPT writing at my job, where students come almost exclusively with AI written essays that will be submitted to elite educational institutions as part of the college application process. The problem is then two fold: On the one hand, writing has become synonymous with political activism. On the other hand, students now read almost exclusively AI written text, internalizing ChatGPT turns of phrases that will eventually appear in their own writing and even speaking habits." (Students Are Reading Garbage by Liza Libes). Universities Today. Universities today are the universities of dark yesteryears. They are the universities of Soviet Russia, National Socialist Germany and Maoist China. They are universities promoting methods of intimidation, violence and terror against the opposition. They are universities staging rallies and riots seeking to overthrow free societies. They are the universities of the Black Shirts, Red Guards and Horst Wessels of the world, and they have closed the gates to higher education in the West.

EMPTY SPACES, EMPTY PAGES, NOISES AND SCREECHING

It detonated forty three seconds after being released, at six hundred meters above the city. A blinding flash, a sheet of sun and a massive shock wave swept over the land, and the blast and heat destroyed every structure within sight and killed 80,000 inhabitants. The city was Hiroshima, the date and time, August 6, 1945 at 8:15 am, and the event was the dropping of a nuclear bomb. The initial destruction and the radiation poisoning which would ensue for generations provide a picture of a catastrophe which occurred in the eighteenth century, one whose effects are still being felt. They have poisoned the present day. The catastrophe was the formulation of a philosophy during the Age of Enlightenment by a thinker who hated the age in which he lived and sought to subvert it. He succeeded in his aim and the spread of his philosophy brought the Enlightenment to a close and ushered in the Age of Romanticism. The philosopher is among the most influential and discussed philosophers in the West, and his system encapsulates Western Faustian thought like no other. His system highlights the divide between Western Culture and Classical Culture and highlights the subjectivism lying at the basis of the West. It highlights the difference between the ancient culture whose symbol was Apollo, which championed human sanity and affirmed the existence of physical objects, and the culture whose symbol is Faust, which champions human insanity and denies the existence or perceivability of physical objects. It highlights the gulf existing between mental health and mental disease, as it establishes the unique fact that a single region, Europe, has given rise to two separate and independent cultures, Classical and Western, a fact not replicated in any other region in the world. This philosopher is Immanuel Kant, and his system of subjectivism, which opposed not only the Apollonian philosophy of Classical Culture but the reigning philosophy of his own Age of Enlightenment which affirmed the existence of physical objects, has produced among its worst effects the destruction of the arts commencing in the twentieth century. In the eighteenth century, a philosophic bomb blew up and two centuries later, its fallout rained down destruction on the world of literature, painting and music, which for thousands of years had inspired, delighted and entertained audiences with its depictions of beauty. Look at the explosion, look at its consequences, and see a demonstration of the impact and importance of philosophic ideas, a demonstration whose clarity and directness remain unsurpassed. The Bomb. Listen to Kant proclaim his philosophic mission with a brazenness which remains unsurpassed, a brazenness which has served as a clarion call to the psychotics of the world to rise up and storm the ramparts of civilization: "I have found it necessary to deny knowledge in order to make room for faith." (Critique Of Pure Reason). To deny knowledge: the most accurate statement of the essence of Western Culture ever made, as clear and honest as it is terrifying and unbelievable. Listen to Kant proclaim that human consciousness is the consciousness of nothing. Man perceives nothing when he perceives something. Man is blind because he has eyes and is blind when he sees. What is called knowledge is a universal human delusion, and the human mind and senses exist in a state of perpetual darkness and ignorance: "Hitherto it has been assumed that all our knowledge must conform to objects. But all attempts to extend our knowledge of objects by establishing something in regard to them apriori, by means of concepts independent of experience, have on this assumption ended in failure. We must therefore find out whether we may not have more success in the tasks of metaphysics if we suppose that objects conform to our knowledge." (Critique Of Pure Reason). Listen to Kant proclaim that the perceived world of physical objects is a mere subjective appearance and representation. Whatever is sensory is on that account unreal. The world of space and time, the world of mountains, valleys, planets and stars, is a world created by human eyes: "I understand by the idealism of all appearances the doctrine that they are all together to be regarded as mere representations and not things in themselves, and accordingly that time and space are only sensory forms of perception and not determinations given for themselves or conditions of objects as things in themselves. To this idealism is opposed realism, which regards space and time as something given in themselves independent of perception." (Critique Of Pure Reason). Kant's theory of beauty is consequence of his theory of knowledge. He proclaims that beauty is a product of the "free play" of the imagination and understanding and has no relation to reality which is unperceivable. When we call an object beautiful, it is because its form fits our consciousness and not because it exemplifies any real properties of order or harmony. Judgments of beauty are subjective judgments of taste. Because order and harmony are subjective human constructs and reality is itself unperceivable, beauty exists in the eye of the beholder. The highest type of art is that which is devoid of all content and subject matter, for the perceived world is a veil of illusion. True beauty is "free" and not "adherent": it exists independently of the nature of objects and does not "adhere" in them. A well built man, animal or house is beautiful only in the adherent sense and not in the higher free sense. Judgments of beauty are universal and apriori, are made independently of all experience, and are on that account purely subjective. Beauty has no relation to what something is or how it ought to be: "In order to find anything good, I must always know what sort of a thing the object ought to be, that is, I must have an idea of it. But there is no need of this to find a thing beautiful." (Critique Of Judgment). Judgments of beauty are based on subjective pleasure and are not real judgments about real things: "The agreeable is what gratifies a man; the beautiful what simply pleases him." (Critique Of Judgment). The Fallout. Now look at the fallout from Kant's subjectivism and see the arts in the twentieth century and the present day reduced to wastelands and rendered unrecognizable.

Literature. See Kantians proclaim that the highest type of literature consists in collections of sentences and paragraphs devoid of causally connected sequences of events. It is the presentation of actions without point, progression, resolution or closure. It is the presentation of a story without beginning, without end and in which nothing happens. It is a mental biography presenting internal states and experiences without meaning or reference of any kind: "In my own writing, I am not much interested in plot as a linear unfolding of cause and effect, where things kick off early before working towards some form of resolution, leaving us at a point of closure. If I throw a tennis ball in the air, we have an inciting event; then we have tension while we wait and see how high it goes, followed by the increased tension over whether I'll catch it. It either lands back in my hand or I drop it, or a stork swoops by and swallows it: something happens that signifies the end of the story. What interests me, however, is whether the person throwing the ball is changed by the experience; if so, how are they changed? How aware are they of the change and what do they do with that knowledge? In other words, what fascinates me is transition, personal transition to be specific. Why? Because it houses insight. Humans are so adaptable that in the face of change, our tendency is to rationalize, nail down and give expression to our new situation, and in the process, identify with it—it becomes absorbed into our sense of self. There is a brief period where we are between states, and it is in this rich seam where we can learn about ourselves and, through fiction, learn from others." (What Do We Mean When We Say A Novel Is Without Plot? by Ronan Hession). Painting. See Kantians proclaim that the highest type of painting is nonobjective. It consists in a play of forms, spaces and colors without the depiction of objects in reality. It is the product of sight which is the sight of nothing, and this nonsight and nonperception is the highest type of vision: "Nonobjective painting is the natural progression of all modern painting. Painting has developed in purity of expression and enlarged the range of knowledge of its media (and particularly color); its primary purpose has changed from that of recording deeds and events for posterity, to creating something so beautiful in itself that the human spirit is revived, expanded, and uplifted by looking at it. It is only as the collective mind of many painters has grasped this change that they have been free to investigate the potentialities of form, space and color. The human response to color and form as phenomena, is as valid and valuable as the response to sound, or the emotions invoked by literature. That this realization came so late was probably due to the fact that sight, or the visual apprehension of objects, was necessarily used in everyday living for the solution of practical problems by actions. Sight was subsidiary to action and thereby bounded by the petty world cf affairs. With the release of mere sight from this constriction It becomes vision, and vision both creates and lives in Art." (Public Comments Made In The Museum of Nonobjective Painting In New York City, from January to April 1946, in On The Spiritual In Art by Wassily Kandinsky). Music. Listen to Kantians proclaim that the highest type of music is devoid of melody. It is devoid of a central key, tonal center or home pitch. It consists of dissonant, clashing, inharmonious sounds. It consists of unrelated combinations of notes. It consists of random, computer generated sounds: "The twentieth century saw a radical shift in music, moving from traditional tonality to experimental forms like atonality and serialism. Composers like Arnold Schoenberg and Anton Webern pushed boundaries, developing new techniques that challenged listeners and redefined musical expression. Electronic music emerged midcentury, with musique concrète and elektronische Musik paving the way for synthesizers and computer generated sound. This technological revolution, coupled with avantgarde movements, reshaped the musical landscape and influenced genres far beyond classical music." (History Of Music, fiveable.me). The Fallout. Nothing was left standing. People, buildings and structures were incinerated and reduced to ashes. The cities were buried in rubble and shrouded in a pall of radiation poisoning which would claim those yet to be born. This was Hiroshima and Nagasaki in the aftermath of the nuclear bombings in 1945. In the eighteenth century, a Kantian bomb detonated which two centuries later would poison the arts forever. The literature of disorder and streams of consciousness. Stories which are stories of nothing. Paintings and sculptures which are paintings and sculptures of nothing. Music devoid of melody, harmony and key. Singing replaced by screeching, nonmelodious, inharmonious, loud and harsh. In the twenty first century, a dark field of nonliterature, nonpainting, nonsculpture and nonmusic exists where the arts used to flourish. It is the nightmare field of Kantian esthetics.

DR ANTIFA ESCAPES TO SPAIN

They were called ratlines. Commencing in Europe, they led into South America and provided high ranking fascists after World War II with a means of escape. Utilized by Adolf Eichmann, Klaus Barbie and Josef Mengele, they saw 10,000 war criminals and their collaborators escape into Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Bolivia, and allowed monsters to immerse themselves in foreign lands and escape the reach of justice. On October 9, 2025, a ratline was restarted for an enemy of freedom which enabled him to escape from America in order to avoid the reach of justice. Calling himself a historian and scholar, he has been a professor of history at Rutgers University since 2019 and is a leader of the Marxist terror organization Antifa. His name is Mark Bray and he exemplifies the order of Marxist hoodlums which has assumed control over the Western cultural and political establishment, and transformed universities into violent streets and indoctrination camps ruthlessly crushing the voices of dissent. Backstory. On October 9, 2025, Mark Bray escaped from America because the nation led by Donald Trump had designated Antifa a terror organization. He escaped because under Trump there no longer is official tolerance given to an organization dedicated to the overthrow of the United States government. An organization which engages in acts of Marxist militarism and aggression. An organization which seeks to replace liberal government with Marxist government under the flag of anarchy. An organization whose methods are violence, terror, riots, doxing, and assaults on law enforcement and immigration enforcement officials. An organization which recruits, radicalizes and trains people to storm the ramparts of civilization and blow up free societies. An organization of black clad, black masked hoodlums whose source of funds is as hidden as their identities, brandishing weapons loaded with hate, and fomenting war against the traditions and institutions of the Enlightenment: "Antifa is a militarist, anarchist enterprise that explicitly calls for the overthrow of the United States Government, law enforcement authorities, and our system of law. It uses illegal means to organize and execute a campaign of violence and terrorism nationwide to accomplish these goals. This campaign involves coordinated efforts to obstruct enforcement of Federal laws through armed standoffs with law enforcement, organized riots, violent assaults on Immigration and Customs Enforcement and other law enforcement officers, and routine doxing of and other threats against political figures and activists. Antifa recruits, trains, and radicalizes young Americans to engage in this violence and suppression of political activity, then employs elaborate means and mechanisms to shield the identities of its operatives, conceal its funding sources and operations in an effort to frustrate law enforcement, and recruit additional members. Individuals associated with and acting on behalf of Antifa further coordinate with other organizations and entities for the purpose of spreading, fomenting, and advancing political violence and suppressing lawful political speech. This organized effort designed to achieve policy objectives by coercion and intimidation is domestic terrorism." (Designating Antifa A Domestic Terror Organization, September 22, 2025, Executive Order by Donald Trump). Mark Bray. The person who escaped to Spain on October 9, 2025 is a bankroller of Antifa. He proclaims that acts of violence are justified as forms of self defense against the capitalist regime of white supremacy. He proclaims that capitalism is a far right regime and those who support it are not entitled to free speech. He proclaims that mass rioting and looting are justified in order to smash the racist, sexist, antigay, antitransgender, antimigrant, antiIslam capitalist regime. He proclaims that Antifa has never killed anyone when in actual fact it has killed hundreds of people in urban riots and acts of terror since Donald Trump began his first term on January 30, 2017 and inaugurated organized opposition to Antifa. He condemns capitalism as a regime of Klan hoods and police brutality against blacks. He advocates mass vandalism and looting by blacks in the name of avenging the death of George

Floyd. He advocates Marxist terror and gender, race and class politics in the name of protecting human rights: "Mark Bray is a part time lecturer in the Department of History at Rutgers University. Bray first gained notoriety in 2017 when he authored The Anti Fascist Handbook, and offered to donate half of the proceeds to ANTIFA. Bray fully endorses ANTIFA's embrace of violence as a tactic, and often describes it as 'self defense.' He has stated that in order to 'preemptively' shut down far right events and gatherings, 'physical violence against white supremacists is both ethically justifiable and strategically effective.' Soon after publication, he appeared on NBC to defend the use of force against opposing protestors. He claimed that as an illiberal organization, ANTIFA has and will continue to shut down the free speech of the far right. Bray recently penned an op-ed in the Washington Post in the midst of mass rioting following the death of George Floyd. After expressing sympathy with the looters, Bray claims that police officers are, in fact, deadlier than ANTIFA. He wrote, 'and in the United States, ANTIFA has never killed anyone, unlike their enemies in Klan hoods and squad cars.' After his views were condemned by Dartmouth University–his employer at the time–Bray soon began lecturing at Rutgers, where his university biography describes him as a 'historian of human rights, terrorism, and politics in Modern Europe.' " (Mark Bray, Rutgers University, Professor Watchlist). Mark Bray. The person who escaped to Spain on October 9, 2025 is a hoodlum masquerading as a professor. He advocates violence against conservatives and libertarians. He advocates violence against antiMarxists in the name of fighting fascism. He advocates left wing terror in the name of popular liberation. He advocates Marxist militancy in the name of fighting racism. He advocates Marxist occupation in the name of defending social justice. His definition of anarchy is Marxist totalitarian dictatorship. He advocates Marxist assassination in the name of defending black civil rights. He advocates a Marxist inquisition in the name of defending free speech. He advocates Marxist indoctrination in the name of providing a modern education. He advocates Marxist martyrdom in the name of defending the working class. He bankrolls the Marxist front International Anti Fascist Defense Fund and its campaign of sabotage and subversion of liberal democracy: "Students at the Turning Point USA chapter at Rutgers University have launched a petition to remove what they call an 'Antifa aligned' professor. 'Our petition is to call on Professor Mark Bray to be fired from Rutgers,' Megyn Doyle, a student at Rutgers and the treasurer for the Turning Point USA chapter, told Fox News Digital Friday in an interview. 'We believe that conservative students and political violence are very prominent now,' Doyle added. 'And it puts conservative students at risk from such political violence. And when you have a teacher that so often promotes political violence, especially in his book, Antifa: The Anti Fascist Handbook, which talks about militant fascism, which is on term with political violence, we believe that it puts conservative students at risk for Antifa to come in.' The petition, launched on Thursday, reads, 'We, the students of Rutgers University, are deeply concerned to learn that an outspoken, well known ANTIFA member, Dr. Mark Bray, is employed by the university.' 'Dr Mark Bray, whom we call Dr Antifa, wrote the Antifa handbook, which is a guideline to what he refers to as militant antifascism,' it adds. 'With the current trend of left wing terrorism, having a prominent leader of the Antifa movement on campus is a threat to conservative students on campus,' the page for the petition reads. Bray is an assistant teaching professor at Rutgers. He is the author of Antifa: The Anti Fascist Handbook, The Anarchist Inquisition: Assassins, Activists, and Martyrs in Spain and France, and Translating Anarchy: The Anarchism of Occupy Wall Street. In Antifa: The Anti Fascist Handbook, Bray wrote that 'at the very least 50 percent of author proceeds will go to the International Anti Fascist Defense Fund which is administered by more than three hundred Antifa from eighteen countries.' He is also the coeditor and translator of Anarchist Education And The Modern School: A Francisco Ferrer Reader. Ava Kwan, the outreach coordinator for the Turning Point USA chapter at Rutgers, told Fox News Digital in an interview that the assassination of Charlie Kirk, the 31 year old founder and CEO of Turning Point USA, was a wake up call to what is happening on their campus." (Rutgers Turning Point USA chapter Launches Petition To Fire Professor iIt Calls Dr Antifa by Rachel del Guidice). Mark Bray. The person who escaped to Spain on October 9, 2025 advocates Marxist violence against liberal dissent. He advocates Marxist aggression as a form of self defense. He condemns capitalism as a regime of white supremacy and neonazism. He advocates Marxist attacks on peaceful oppositional protests in the name of fighting racist capitalist monsters. He advocates the abolition of civil discourse and the peaceful exchange of opinions in the name of defending political correctness: "Mark Bray has made no secret about his belief that violence is, in some circumstances, justified. In turn, the university has sought to distance itself from him. During an appearance on Meet the Press last week, Bray argued that 'when pushed, self defense is a legitimate response to white supremacist and neonazi violence.' 'We've tried ignoring neonazis in the past. We've seen how that turned out in the 20s and 30s,' Bray told host Chuck Todd. 'A lot of people are under attack, and sometimes they need to be able to defend themselves. It's a privileged position to say you never have to defend yourself from these kinds of monsters.' Dartmouth President Philip J. Hanlon repudiated Bray in a statement, saying he was 'supporting violent protest.' 'As an institution, we condemn anything but civil discourse in the exchange of ideas,' Hanlon said. 'The endorsement of violence in any form is contrary to Dartmouth values.' " (A Dartmouth Antifa Expert Was Disavowed By His College President For 'Supporting Violent Protest,' Angering Many Faculty by Derek Hawkins). Mark Bray. The past eighty years since the fall of Berlin have brought forth two tales of sanctuary which have sent the chill of fear coursing through civilized people. Beginning in 1945, fascist nations in Latin America provided sanctuary to fascist war criminals escaping from Europe. On October 9, 2025, Marxist Spain provided sanctuary to Marxist terrorist Mark Bray, escaping from an Antifa crackdown in America launched by Donald Trump. Two tales of freedom's enemies giving sanctuary to fugitives from justice, the first dressed in brownshirts and the second dressed in a redshirt, the first marching under the banners of the swastika and the second marching under the banners of the hammer and sickle. Two tales of Satan's helpers in the final act of the West. #

JANE AUSTEN'S BOOKS BURNED

Sense and Sensibility. Pride and Prejudice. Mansfield Park. Emma. Northanger Abbey. Persuasion. Six novels famous throughout the world for their interpretation, analysis and assessment of the English landed gentry of the eighteenth century. Six novels which established Jane Austen as a master of satire, literary realism and romantic fiction. Six novels, written in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, never out of print, included in countless literary anthologies, adapted for stage, screen and television, which have earned Austen the highest acclaim among critics and scholars, and sent her to the top ranks of the world's bestselling authors. In the twenty first century, this iconic English novelist has been removed from the shelves and her books burned. She has been canceled by an establishment rejecting the legacies of the Enlightenment and enforcing gender, race and class politics. She has been canceled by the Marxist commissars of culture elected for life by the majority, tarred as an avatar of political incorrectness, and consigned to the dustbin of literary nonexistence. Book Burning. The establishment condemns Jane Austen and her books because she was white and wrote about white people. It condemns her books as expressions of white, nationalist, capitalist, reactionary culture. It condemns her books as expressions of racist, colonialist, imperialist, Redcoat, Brexit culture. It condemns her books as expressions of the English white canon. It condemns her books because they are read and enjoyed by whites. It condemns her books as defenses of the white, capitalist regime of black slavery. It condemns her books as defenses of racial injustice. It condemns her books as defenses of white, capitalist, race based government. It condemns her books as defenses of capitalist slave traffic, slave navies, slave plantations and slave police. It condemns her books as defenses of the British capitalist slave empire. It condemns her books as defenses of the white, liberal, capitalist reign of terror known asd the Enlightenment: "Emerging from the train station in Bath, my wife and I were greeted by the eighteenth century. There were men in top hats and tails wielding ornate canes; women in elegant regency gowns so large they swallowed six square feet of street; fancy bonnets. It is the 250th birthday year of Jane Austen, who lived in Bath from 1801 to 1806, and the city pulled out all the stops. Austen's birthday is December 16th, but the celebrations have been going on for months. At least, for some. Massive banners stretched across roadways; guides in Regency garb greeted visitors at the Jane Austen Centre (a museum I highly recommend); the various Austen residences at 4 Sydney Place, 27 Green Park Buildings, and 25 Gay Street are popular stops. Like the Bronte sisters, Austen died tragically young, at the age of 41. Despite her short life, she left six novels that achieved the status of classics; two, Northanger Abbey and Persuasion, published posthumously. But no English icon can be celebrated in 2025 without a chorus of sneering voices joining the decade long attempt to transition Jane Austen from beloved literary icon to problematic symbol of 'whiteness,' which is now a synonym for 'bad.' Progressives have attacked the Brontes, Dickens, and indeed virtually every writer in the English canon. But the salvos aimed at Jane Austen are the most ludicrous. As literature professor Kerry Sinanan whined recently: The 250th birthday celebrations of Austen's birth need to be read in the context of recreating a white, nationalist culture for a reactionary Brexit Britain, proud of its military Redcoats and imperial past—reflected in celebratory romance, afternoon tea, naval officers, muslin gown esthetics and cosplay.' The Daily Beast published a 2020 report titled The Battle over Jane Austen's Whiteness, noting that 'fans are struggling with the stories' colonialism and lack of diversity.' To which the obvious response is: Then don't read Jane Austen. Maybe her stories just aren't for you. If you want stories about nonwhite characters, perhaps you might choose a story that wasn't written and set during a period in which over 99 percent of England's population was white. At Literary Hub, Marcos Gonsalez sniveled in an excruciating article titled Recognizing the Enduring Whiteness of Jane Austen that the 'novels are some big time white people problems,' which makes sense considering that they are about white people and their problems. Academics have long targeted Austen's 'whiteness' and bemoaned the fact that 'white people' like her books, while hoping these attacks will result in purchases of theirs. The relentless smear campaign includes attempts to tie Austen to slavery, which is especially ridiculous considering that her brother was part of the abolitionist movement. According to historian Devoney Looser, professor at Arizona State University and author of The Making of Jane Austen, Reverend Henry Thomas Austen attended the 1840 World Anti Slavery Convention in London as a delegate. The slave trade had already been abolished in the British empire after two decades of work by William Wilberforce and his colleagues in 1807, with the British navy policing the seas to stop the traffic; slavery itself was abolished in 1833, with a million slaves freed at such massive government expense that the debt was not paid off until 2015. The British and Foreign Anti Slavery Society was founded in 1839, and the 1840 convention was its first major event. Thomas Clarkson was in attendance, as was Lady Bryon and John Greenleaf Whittier. Austen's name is not on the official list of attendees, and so Looser says she was 'stunned' to discover that he was there. George Austen, the family patriarch, had been tied to a West Indian sugar plantation, but 'the family's commitments and actions changed profoundly from known complicity in colonial slavery to previously unnoticed antislavery activism.' Jane Austen references slavery in passing in Mansfield Park and abolitionism in Emma; she noted in one of her letters that she loved the writings of Thomas Clarkson, one of the most prominent abolitionists in the empire. 'We know that she read and cared about issues of race and racial injustice,' Looser noted. Her brother Francis Austen also made a notable antislavery comment in his diaries. Henry, a militia officer, clergyman, and banker was Jane's favorite brother and a major promoter of her work; he married their first cousin Eliza in 1797 after her first husband was killed during the French Revolution's Reign of Terror. Jane nursed Henry back to health during a dangerous illness, and he was at her side during her own long sickbed in 1817, which eventually led to her death. He was one of only three people listed in her will. We visited St. Swithin's Church at the edge of the city. George Austen is buried in the churchyard, and Jane's parents were married there in 1764; the great abolitionist William Wilberforce wed Barbara Spooner at St. Swithin's in 1797, 45 days after meeting her. Jane Austen had many overlapping connections with the Wilberforces, who frequented the city throughout their lives. Historians have attempted to determine whether they ever met, and although we cannot know definitively, the great abolitionist and the literary icon were at the same church service at least once. It was satisfying to see that those celebrating Jane Austen's birthday have not given an inch to the iconoclasts. The guides were unapologetic fans and the museum contained none of the self flagellating displays that are so popular these days. The sinister attempts to turn Austen into a symbol of slavery or 'whiteness' have failed, but the attempts are notable, nonetheless. Ironically, those complaining that Jane Austen is becoming a nationalist symbol have only their own attacks on her to blame. Reading them, I am reminded of Austen's words in Northanger Abbey: 'The person, be it gentleman or lady, who has not pleasure in a good novel, must be intolerably stupid.' " (The Racist Anti White Smearing Of Jane Austen by Jonathon Van Maren). Book Burning. The establishment condemns Jane Austen's books as defenses of Western colonialism. It has removed her books as part of its campaign to "decolonize" the curriculum or remove books written by white authors. It has removed her books in the name of advancing progressive higher education. It condemns her books in the name of increasing racial diversity among authors and decreasing the number of whites. It condemns her books in the name of critical race theory. According to this theory, a progressive society is critical of the Enlightenment ideas of reason, truth, empiricism, human essentialism, human universalism and human rights, and promotes race differences, race essentialism, race war, black supremacy and black totalitarian dictatorship. The establishment condemns her books in the name of black, national socialist, postEnlightenment culture. It condemns her books on the ground that black lives matter and nobody else's lives matter. It condemns her books in the name of black racism as it promotes black racism in the name of antiracism: "Jane Austen, the writer of Pride and Prejudice has been dropped by a literature course at Stirling University in order to 'help with decolonizing the curriculum.' Austen will be replaced by African-American writer Toni Morrison, with the university suggesting that swapping the famed author for Morrison would also 'contribute to increased diversity' on the syllabus, according to forms informing management of alterations to course material where 'The main topics covered will include racial difference and critical race theory, gender, and sexuality.' Those taking on the Special Authors module in 2022 will also be taught about 'black postmodernism, Gothic, as well as the esthetics of the contemporary US and African-American novel.' The changes to the course come following a commitment made in the wake of Black Lives Matter protests in 2020, with Stirling University principle Professor Gerry McCormac saying the institution must 'support an antiracist agenda in higher education.' " ('Pride and Prejudice' Author Jane Austen Cancelled From University's English Literature Course by Lewis Brackpool). Book Burning. May 10, 1933. Berlin, Germany, Bebelplatz Square at the State Opera. A bonfire of disgrace lights up the city as satanic flames consume its civilization. In these flames are books hurled in because they opposed the reigning orthodoxy of race hate. They were hurled into the flames by student activists marching under the banners of national socialism and white supremacy. Eighty years after the fall of Berlin in the ashes of the Third Reich, the race haters, the anticapitalists, the neoMarxists and the national socialists are alive and well. They have changed their uniforms and colors and march under the banners of black supremacy, black anticapitalism, black antiEnlightenment, black Marxism and black national socialism. They have burned the books of Jane Austen.

MARXIST CITIES, SEWERS AND FLOODWATERS

In 1801, ten percent of the population of England and Wales, or one million people, lived in London. Each inhabitant produced 113 grams and a liter of solid and liquid waste in a city without the infrastructure to remove it. The few sewers which existed were open ditches, carrying away rainwater and filth into the Thames River and filling the air with stench: "An immense quantity of filth is daily carried to the Thames, in its passage to which it subjects the people in the lower part of the city to the most offensive effluvia." (A Calm Investigation Of The Circumstances That Have Led To The Present Scarcity Of Grain In Britain by James Anderson). In 1841, the population of London had increased to two million, and the city had become the filthiest and foulest city in Europe, burying its mighty civilization in its new horror: "It is impossible to read the accounts contained in the Reports of the Commissioners of the Health of Towns, of the filthy and horrible state in which the houses and streets in the poorer localities are represented to exist, without being struck with amazement, that in a town, professing to be the center of civilization, and the mightiest in the world, such abominations as everywhere present themselves should be allowed to exist even for a day." (Unhealthiness Of London And The Necessity Of Remedial Measures by Hector Gavin). Moral filth, foulness, effluvia and disease. The stench of sabotage and subversion. The rot of radicalism and revolution. This is the world of the masses and their number one modern day religion known as Marxism, and this is that world in its most crowded and concentrated form. This is the world of cities. Wherever the masses congregate in large, dense numbers and make their home are the filthiest and foulest emanations of Marxism. Cities, the centers of civilization, by virtue of their magnetic attraction of the masses, present a paradox, for they are in addition the purest forms of Marxism, and cultivate the seeds of civilizational destruction, seeds which grow into mighty forests blotting out the sunlight of human freedom and enlightenment. Every civilization in its stages of decline has been accelerated into free fall by the masses in its cities. Ancient Rome's plebs and populares agitated in amphitheaters and asphalt, demanded endless bread and circuses, conducted a virulent class war against the Senate and the Constitution, supported Julius Caesar in his quest to become dictator for life, and led by Caesar, overthrew five centuries of Roman freedom. In the West, cities are the capitals of a Marxist moral underworld and the accelerants of a roaring fire consuming liberal democracy. Cities Today. Look at cities today and see Marxist fueled crime in the streets, forcing people to arm themselves. See the Marxist abolition of morality, mental health and human liberty. See Marxist huts, tents, drug markets, race wars and sanctuaries for illegal aliens. See Marxist welfare states give free bus service, free child care and free groceries to the scum of the earth. See Marxist murders, assaults and tidal waves of violence sweep into every home, school and office. See Marxist property taxes confiscate homes and businesses. See Marxist poverty, waste, corruption and public schools which no longer teach. See Marxist thieves invade shops and force shop owners to lock up their merchandise. See Marxist youth exalt violence and gang wars as the meaning and purpose of their lives. See Marxist armies of the homeless transform streets and squares into encampments. See Marxist alcoholics and drug addicts terrorize neighborhoods. See Marxist vagrants transform sidewalks into waste receptacles. See Marxist diseases ravage the population. See Marxist illiteracy and innumeracy doom generations. See Marxist mayors, bosses, city councils, district attorneys and political machines coddle criminals, induce a flight of decent, law abiding citizens, and preside over welfare plantations cultivating a single crop called moral degeneracy: "Once, cities were fun. I used to love walking around the District of Columbia, visiting sites such as the National Archives Building and the Lincoln Memorial, paeans in stone to our greatness. Every city had its unique charm: New York's Rockefeller Center, Seattle's Pike Place Market and Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco. Now it takes a hardy soul to visit America's once proud cities without an armed escort. Songs were written about our cities in their heyday: New York, New York– It's A Wonderful Town, Chicago, Chicago! and I Left My Heart In San Francisco. Today, you could leave your wallet and car there too. Our cities have become the face of the Democrat Party, akin to the creature in Alien on a bad hair day. Even though they are manifest failures, cities determine the politics of many states. Without the five boroughs and a few upstate counties, New York state would be solidly red. Absent Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco, California still would be the type of state that twice elected Ronald Reagan governor. In 1800, Thomas Jefferson–ironically, the founder of the Democrat Party–wrote, 'I view great cities as pestilential to the morals, the health and the liberties of man.' That was before homeless encampments, open air drug markets, racial mobs and sanctuary cities. Today, our municipalities are noted for punitive taxes, rampant crime, abject poverty, failed schools, waste and corruption. From 2013 to 2023, Chicago's commercial property taxes jumped 93%. New York mayoral candidate Zohran Mamdani–with his free bus service, no cost child care and municipal grocery stores–is merely the next logical step in the devolution of urban America. Crime is the most visible sign of urban decay. The District's homicide rate is five times higher than Mexico City's. In 2024, there were 1,026 assaults with a dangerous weapon in our nation's capital. That's after officials cooked the books to make the crime rate seem lower. Nationally, shoplifting was up 54% in 2021. Former Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot blamed store owners for not keeping high end merchandise locked up, which is like blaming rape victims for being vulnerable. Some mayors belong in a perp walk. Chicago Mayor Brandon Johnson blames youth crime on 'a sense of hopelessness.' Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass fiddled around in Ghana while LA Burned. For big cities, the standard solution to any problem is to throw tons of money at it. On an average night in 2024, there were 771,450 homeless in the United States. San Francisco spends $1 billion annually on its homeless population, which has grown 32% since 2010. With homelessness comes crime, addiction, disease and mental illness. Two thirds of the homeless are addicts or alcoholics. City streets have been turned into toilets. San Francisco posts maps to help pedestrians navigate piles of human feces. Cities that once educated generations of immigrants now are illiteracy factories. In 2020, the Illinois Department of Education estimated that only 1 in 10 Chicago schools had students reading or doing math at grade level. Blue cities have spurred urban flight. From 2020 to 2022, more than 2 million left our 10 largest cities. Only one of our 15 largest cities has a Republican mayor. The Windy City elected its last Republican mayor in 1927. Many prominent Democrats started in municipal politics, then went on to ruin other things. Former Vice President Kamala Harris was a San Francisco district attorney. California Governor Gavin Newsom was its mayor. Former Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg was the mayor of South Bend, Indiana. How did big cities become liberal [Marxist] welfare plantations? Urban machines are a Democratic invention started by Boss Tweed. As more productive urbanites left for red states, those remaining were increasingly impoverished and easily manipulated. Handouts always have special appeal for big city voters, hence Mr. Mamdani's standing in the polls." (Blue Cities Are Reminiscent Of The Creature In Alien by Don Feder). Cities Today. Look at cities today and see Marxist incendiaries burn down commercial vehicles. See Marxist flames consume freedom and capitalism. See Marxist blazes sweep across streets and squares. See Marxist arsonists attack the foundations of progress and civilization: "Specialist police are investigating after an ultra left group claimed responsibility for the burning of dozens of Amazon and Deutsche Telekom trucks in Berlin this week. 100 firemen were deployed by the Berlin fire brigade to blazes in the Lichtenberg and Britz neighborhoods in early hours of Tuesday morning to tackle blazes apparently set amid large numbers of commercial vehicles, reports city newspaper BZ. At both locations the fires, which started simultaneously several miles apart, were too well established by the time they were noticed and reported to be put out and the vehicles were totally destroyed. In all 19 Amazon delivery vans in a private Amazon compound and 17 Deutsche Telekom vans in a car park were burnt out. Five further vehicles were damaged by flames leaping from the burning Amazon trucks at the compound location, Tageschau reports. The fires came as Amazon celebrated the opening of its new corporate headquarters in Berlin, the city's tallest office tower where 3,000 Amazon staff are due to work. The state security services are investigating the blazes because of the presumed political motivation for the arson. Indeed, the fires follow other such attacks in Berlin in recent days. Last week in the early hours of Tuesday morning 23 Amazon delivery vans were burnt out in Brandenburg, Germany. Weeks before on May 1st, another 16 Amazon vans were burnt in the Wittenau neighborhood of Berlin." (Civil War Watch: Left Extremists Burn Amazon, Telecom Company Vans In Berlin by Oliver JJ Stone). Cities Today. A sewer overflow is the release of untreated wastewater into the environment. Containing deadly microrganisms and pollutants, sewer overflows are public health catastrophes. Caused by the heavy rainfall of mob politics, cities today are sewer overflows of Marxist crime, migration, race riots and world revolution, and have fouled the West beyond recognition.

THE NOBEL PRIZE IN POLITICS

The History. It all began with the Abraham Accords. Signed on September 15, 2020, the Accords were mediated by Donald Trump, and under them, UAE and Bahrain became the first Arab countries to recognize Israel's to exist since Jordan in 1994. In the ensuing months, Sudan and Morocco would as well recognize Israel. This was the first achievement in Trump's campaign to bring peace to the world, and more achievements would follow in Trump's second term. On May 10, 2025, Trump ended the four day war between India and Pakistan which had been moving into a nuclear exchange. His role in ending the deterioration into catastrophe is described by Pakistan: "Pakistan has said it would recommend Donald Trump for the Nobel Peace Prize for his work in helping to resolve the recent conflict between India and Pakistan. 'President Trump demonstrated great strategic foresight and stellar statesmanship through robust diplomatic engagement with both Islamabad and New Delhi, which deescalated a rapidly deteriorating situation,' Pakistan said. 'This intervention stands as a testament to his role as a genuine peacemaker.' " (Pakistan Says It Will Nominate Donald Trump For Nobel Peace Prize For Resolving Its Conflict With India, Sky News, June 21, 2025). In June 2025, Trump ended the thirty year war between Rwanda and the Democratic Republic of Congo. "Rwanda's Foreign Minister Olivier Nduhungirehe told Breitbart News exclusively on Saturday that US President Donald Trump 'absolutely deserves the Nobel Peace Prize' for his work to help end the bloody 30 year conflict in the agreement Trump and his administration secured between Rwanda and the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC)." (Rwandan Foreign Minister: Trump 'Absolutely Deserves the Nobel Peace Prize' for Helping End 30 Year Conflict with Congo Peace Agreement by Matthew Boyle). On June 22, Trump launched Operation Midnight Hammer against Iran, destroying its nuclear bomb sites at Isfahan, Natanz and Fordo. He destroyed a terror regime's capacity to wage war: "During an interview with the Fox News Channel aired on Tuesday's broadcast of The Story IAEA Director General Rafael Grossi said that Iran's 'nuclear program has been set back significantly.' And there's a 'night and day' difference between Iran's nuclear program two weeks ago and where it is now." (IAEA: Iran's Nuke Program 'Set Back Significantly', 'Night and Day' From 2 Weeks Ago by Ian Hanchett). On August 7, 2025, Trump ended the war between Thailand and Cambodia over land along their 800 kilometer border. On July 26, Trump posted on Truth Social: "I am calling the Acting Prime Minister of Thailand, right now, to likewise request a Ceasefire, and END to the War, which is currently raging." In ten days, the war ended. On August 8, 2025, Trump ended the forty year war between Armenia and Azerbaijan over the status of Nagorno-Karabakh. Trump's peace agreement is described by Theo Zenou, research fellow at the Henry Jackson Society: "Give credit where credit is due: brokering a peace agreement between Armenia and Azerbaijan is a genuine achievement." On October 13, 2025, Trump signed a peace agreement which saw the release of twenty Israeli hostages taken by Hamas in Gaza in its war launched on October 7, 2024. On October 13, 2025, the guns of terror fell silent and the innocent were returned to their homeland. The guns fell silent and the hostages were returned because Trump had understood Trump that which his predecessors did not, that a just peace from an enemy gripped by madness can only be secured through the use of superior military might. Trump understood that the language of force is the only language Hamas speaks, and that it had to be defeated and destroyed before it would agree to a ceasefire and agree to return the hostages: "Alan Dershowitz said on Fox Business Tuesday that President Donald Trump achieved diplomatic breakthroughs, whereas former Presidents Barack Obama and Joe Biden failed. Trump brokered a ceasefire between Israel and Hamas on Monday, as the terrorist group released the 20 surviving hostages taken during the October 7, 2023 massacre that killed more than 1,200 people in southern Israel. Appearing on The Evening Edit, Dershowitz said Trump succeeded where his predecessors failed because he understood how to connect military power to diplomacy. 'The reason that Donald Trump, President Trump, got this done is because he first allowed Israel to destroy Hamas, to destroy Hezbollah, to attack Iran,' Dershowitz told host Elizabeth MacDonald. 'Then with the help of the United States, weaken all of Israel's enemies and all of Hamas' friends, and then Hamas had no choice.' Dershowitz said even former secretaries of state from prior administrations have acknowledged that. Trump's approach, Dershowitz said, reflected a core principle that his predecessors overlooked. 'You only get peace through strength. Military strength is followed by diplomatic strength. That's what President Trump understood. He understood it well, and he achieved success,' Dershowitz said." (Alan Dershowitz Explains Why Trump Got Results While Obama Fell Short by Mariane Angela). The Prize. Donald Trump received no Nobel Prize recognition for his peace efforts. Understanding why involves understanding the nature of the world in which we live. This world, the world of late stage Western civilization, is dominated by an orthodoxy of far left politics in one form or another, and has shown unremitting hostility toward world leaders seeking to challenge this orthodoxy. The world today, through its Nobel Peace Prize Committee, has awarded a Peace Prize to Barack Obama because he was a black Marxist elected president of the United States. It has awarded a prize to Palestinian terror leader Yasser Arafat. It has awarded a prize to the radical environmentalist movement, in the person of Al Gore and in the United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, for their condemnation of scientific and technological civilization as a doomsday machine producing greenhouses and global warming. Bringing about Arab recognition of Israel's right to exist in the Abraham Accords, ending wars between the Democratic Republic of Congo and Rwanda, between Armenia and Azerbaijan, between Thailand and Cambodia, and between nuclear armed India and Pakistan, and on October 13, 2025, freeing twenty Israeli hostages held by Hamas and bringing about a Hamas ceasefire, Trump has made achievements worthy of the Peace Prize. These achievements have been ignored by the Nobel committee and the world which created it: "The Nobel Peace Prize did not go to President Donald Trump on Friday. That is because he actually worked hard to achieve peace this year, which is the last thing that the award seeks to recognize, despite its origins. The Nobel Peace Prize has been trash for decades. Long before it went to President Barack Obama simply for the achievement of being elected, the Nobel had given undue recognition to a rogues' gallery of miscreants. The worst was Palestinian terrorist Yasser Arafat, who shared the Nobel with Israeli leaders Yitzchak Rabin and Shimon Peres in 1994. Other recipients of the Peace Prize have been laughably ineffective. Perhaps the worst of these was the United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), the primary instigator of global climate alarmism. The IPCC split the prize in 2007 with former US Vice President Al Gore, just one of many awards—including an Oscar—won by the notoriously hysterical and hypocritical prophet of planetary doom. If the Nobel Peace Prize still meant anything, Trump should have won—easily. Trump achieved a ceasefire between Israel and the Palestinian Hamas terrorist group, with the participation of several regional Arab and Muslim nations, literally the week that the Nobel Peace Prize was awarded. He has also brokered peace deals between the Democratic Republic of Congo and Rwanda; between Armenia and Azerbaijan; and stopped wars between nuclear armed India and Pakistan, plus Thailand and Cambodia. No doubt the winner, Venezuelan opposition leader Maria Corina Machado, is fighting for a worthy cause, but she is a participant in a domestic political fight, not a peacemaker ending global conflicts. It does not matter, really: the Nobel Peace Prize has not been relevant to peacemaking for generations. It has been hijacked by woke interests pushing pet causes. A snub from the committee is a badge of honor for Trump." (Blue State Blues: The Nobel Peace Prize Has Been Trash For Decades by Joel Pollak). The Prize. The world hates Donald Trump, and the Nobel Peace Prize Committee by extension hates him, because he condemns Marxist political violence which has sent law abiding citizens spiralling into the grip of fear. Because he condemns Marxist suppression of the conservative and libertarian opposition. Because he condemns Marxist crime waves and migrant invasions sweeping across the West. Because he condemns Marxist transgenderism denying the facts of biological reality and genetic basis of sex determination, and proclaiming that human gender can be changed by human will. Because he condemns the conflagration called Marxist madness burning up civilization: "President Donald Trump on Friday doubled down on blaming the radical left for political violence in the United States after the killing of conservative activist Charlie Kirk. 'I'll tell you something that's going to get me in trouble, but I couldn't care less. The radicals on the right oftentimes are radical because they don't want to see crime. They don't want to see crime. Worried about the border. They're saying, We don't want these people coming in. We don't want you burning our shopping centers. We don't want you shooting our people in the middle of the street,' Trump said. 'The radicals on the left are the problem,' Trump continued, 'and they're vicious and they're horrible and they're politically savvy, although they want men and women sports, they want transgender for everyone, they want open borders.' " (Trump Doubles Down On Blaming 'Radical Left' After Vow To Go After Political Violence by Alexandra Hutzler and Michelle Stoddart). The Prize. The Peace Prize shall be awarded to those have done the most or the best work for fraternity between nations, for the abolition or reduction of standing armies and for the holding and promotion of peace congresses." (Behind The Scenes Of The Nobel Peace Prize, Nobel website). Composed over a century ago, the words of Alfred Nobel have been rendered meaningless by the Nobel Peace Prize Committee over the past decades. They ring hollow in the ideological chamber which the committee has become. They officially describe prizes which are in reality given, not on the basis of merit but of a popular and influential promotion of Marxist ideologies. They belie the reality that the Nobel Peace Prize is a political prize and not a peace prize, conferring a million dollars and a prestigious award, unequaled by no other, on the enemies of freedom and civilization.

2025:1984

He woke up screaming. In his nightmare, he was in a land patrolled by thought police, socialist commissars and surveillance technology, and individuals had been reduced to pawns of the state. He was one of millions of people throughout the world who had read the classic dystopian novel 1984 by George Orwell, and its message and warning pervaded his thoughts and fears. 1984. Published on June 8, 1949 as Orwell's final book before his death and ranked regularly as one of the greatest books of all time. 1984. A book in the genres of dystopian literature and political fiction which describes the nature and essence of a socialist society. 1984. A picture of the moral perversion, political pornography, and socialized, centralized state and economy into which the West is descending in its final stage of development: "I do not believe that the kind of society I describe will necessarily arrive, but I believe (allowing, of course, for the fact that the book is a satire) that something resembling it could arrive. It shows the perversions to which a centralized economy is liable and which have already been partly realized in communism." (The Savage Satire Of 1984 Still Speaks To Us Today by Bernard Crick, quoting Orwell). In the twenty first century, the horror described in 1984 is coming alive paragraph by paragraph and page by page, and rendering the nations of the free world unrecognizable. It is coming alive by the sanction of the majority, and establishing a democratically imposed totalitarian state which by electoral landslides is pushing the traditions and institutions of the Enlightenment into the dustbin of history. The characteristic features of the socialist monster described by Orwell are the characteristic features developing in the world today, and they are symptoms of the disease which has stricken late modern man and doomed Western civilization: the embrace of religion and the rejection of reason. The regimentation of thought and action by the socialist religion described by Orwell is a three pronged regimentation which has reduced human existence to nothingness and blasted the new zero into the ranks of the animal and vegetable kingdoms. It is the regimentation of everything which makes a human person a human person, and illustrates as nothing else does the evil produced by cultural degeneration. Look at the world described by Orwell, look at the world today, and see a dystopian dream become a terrifying reality and shut down human progress and enlightenment. The three pronged socialist regimentation of man described by Orwell and characterizing the present day is the destruction of truth, the destruction of freedom and the destruction of privacy. The Destruction of Truth. Look at the world today and see the reign of Marxist and neoMarxist religions, and see them join hands with Islam in a common war against the Enlightenment. See the reign of a religion of race, gender and Palestinism. A religion of hatred of Jews and Israel because they stand for freedom and capitalism. A religion condemning capitalism as a regime of victimization of women, nonwhites, gays, lesbians, transgenders, illegal migrants and Muslim terrorists. A religion supporting Islam, Hamas and Gaza as the highest form of progressivism and virtue. A religion of the far left and their Muslim communities. A religion of race essentialism and race radicalism. A religion seeking the eradication of white, liberal, capitalist, European societies and Jews throughout the world which represent them. A religion condemning Jews as supercapitalist, superWest and superwhite. A religion condemning Israel as a Western capitalist, colonialist oppressor. A religion of race, gender and Islamic proletarianism. A religion promoting Hamas terror and Palestinian terror. A religion promoting a black master race and a white slave race. A religion promoting Marxism, Leninism, Islam, the veiling of women, Halal meat slaughter, the cause of Gaza and the destruction of liberal civilization: "Belgium is becoming the breeding ground for antisemitism as the far left has joined together with groups of radical Muslims to forge a 'civil religion' of 'Palestinism' as old tropes are combined with NeoMarxist ideologies of victimization, a report from a think tank has found. The issue of Gaza has become the paramount issue for progressivism as a 'proof of virtue' and a 'sacred cause' to demonstrate that one is 'on the right side of history,' particularly among young adults, the far left, and in Muslim communities, a study from the Institut Jonat has said. 'It is not so much the return of hatred that is to be feared, but its metamorphosis: Belgium has become the laboratory of tomorrow's antisemitism,' the think tank warned. The report, Antisemitism In Belgium: A Perfect Storm, claimed that historical prejudices about Jews within Europe are synthesized within the multicultural nation with bigotries embedded within Muslim groups, in conjunction with radical ideas on race among the far left, such as the academic push towards anticolonialism, as the left has shifted its focus away from working class concerns. Under this leftist vision, Jews, rather than being cast as outsiders from white European societies as they have been in the past, they are considered as 'super white' and therefore an ultimate oppressor group, with Hamas terrorists and Palestinians in Gaza being cast as the ultimate victim group in the global racial hierarchy. The report suggests that this has gained political prominence among the far left, in conjunction with the growing Muslim population in Belgium, and thus is a demographic of increasing political importance during elections. Indeed, the paper noted that the Marxist-Leninist party PVDA has successfully increased its vote share in local elections last year after having 'multiplied visits to mosques in Antwerp.' The far left party has also openly supported hardline Islamic issues, such as supporting the veiling of women, Halal meat slaughter, the Gaza cause." (Leftist-Islamist Alliance Forming A 'Laboratory Of Antisemitism' With 'Civil Religion' Of 'Palestinism,' Study Finds by Kurt Zindulka). The Destruction of Freedom. Look at the world today and see the violent ejection of antisocialists from parliaments, schools, the press and the ranks of society. See the state repression of antisocialist thought and action. See the elimination of freedom and fairness from every aspect of society. See the individual robbed of his right to property, his right to speak freely and his right to select his leaders. See an onslaught of gender, race and class collective power crush individual rights. See liberal constitutions incinerated in the infernos of the Socialist International. See the proclamation that a progressive society is a radical left society. See the proclamation that a progressive society is run by Iran, Hamas, and Marxists of all stripes and varieties. See capitalism condemned as a regime run by the followers of fascism and Adolf Hitler, the antidote to which is a communist totalitarian dictatorship: "Prominent left wing politicians, heads of state, and commentators reacted with vitriol, dismay and apathy at the news this weekend that antisocialist opposition leader Maria Corina Machado had won the 2025 Nobel Peace Prize. Machado, a former lawmaker violently ejected from her elected position in 2014, has spent much of her career challenging the devastating socialist repression in her country, first under late dictator Hugo Chavez and now under his successor Nicolas Maduro. Machado has consistently challenged socialism peacefully, demanding free and fair elections and leading peaceful protests. In her struggle, Machado has also endured challenges from power hungry establishment 'opposition' leaders in her country who have ties to the Socialist International and have offered no successful challenges to Maduro. The Nobel Committee explained in its announcement of the award for Machado that she had won it 'for her tireless work promoting democratic rights for the people of Venezuela and for her struggle to achieve a just and peaceful transition from dictatorship to democracy.' As a result of her steadfast opposition to communism, and in part irked by her praise for Trump, left wing figures throughout the world condemned the prize going to Machado throughout the weekend. Among the first to opine, and most viciously opposed, was the former head of the radical leftist Podemos party of Spain, Pablo Iglesias, who also served as a longtime host of Iranian state television. 'The truth is that to give the Nobel Peace Prize to Corina Machado who has spent years trying to stage a coup d'etat in her country, they could have just given it to Trump directly or even to Adolf Hitler posthumously,' Iglesias wrote on the social media site Twitter. 'Next year [Russian dictator Vladimir] Putin and [Ukrainian President] Volodymyr Zelensky can share it.' " (Left Seethes As Nobel Prize Goes To Venezuelan Anti Socialist Freedom Fighter: 'Could've Given It To Hitler' by Frances Martel). The Destruction of Privacy. Look at the world today and see governments violate people's rights to seclude information about themselves from them. See governments invade and search people's homes and remove documents without just cause. See governments collect electronic data on people without just cause. See government obtain and store the telephone records of the nation. See governments operate ubiquitous surveillance programs targeting everybody and everything. See government closed circuit television cameras and face creation software keep people in the grip of fear. See governments violate the people's right to cyberspace encryption and anonymity in the name of fighting crime. See governments sacrifice the constitutional right to liberty and privacy on the altar of national security and the common good. See governments operate spy systems drawing a net across homes, schools, offices and businesses, trawling in every last trace of private and personal information, and smashing lives and careers with the hammers of a panopticon, watching people round the clock, without their knowledge or consent: "Over a decade ago, when announcing that I would file a lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the National Security Agency's once secret program to collect all Americans' cell phone data, I said, 'Our Founding Fathers objected to general warrants that allowed soldiers to go from house to house searching homes of American colonists [and] I think they would be equally horrified by a government that goes from phone to phone collecting data on all Americans.' A year later, in 2015, I spoke for 10 and a half hours on the floor of the Senate to highlight the dangers of domestic surveillance and said, 'There comes a time in the history of nations when fear and complacency allow power to accumulate and liberty and privacy to suffer.' After years of fighting to protect our constitutional rights against the surveillance state, I was still shocked, though perhaps not surprised, to learn that Special Counsel Jack Smith, who was appointed to investigate Donald Trump, seems to have misused grand jury subpoenas to spy on nine Republican members of Congress by obtaining their phone records." (How Far Did Jack Smith Go To Spy On Republican Members Of Congress? by Rand Paul). The World Today. The world today is the world foreshadowed by George Orwell eighty years ago. It is a world ruled by Marxist governments, masses, parties, Big Brothers, cameras, microphones, cults of personality, ministries of political correctness which rewrite facts and history in accordance with Marxist propaganda, and memory holes in which antiMarxist thought is censored, erased, incinerated and eliminated for all time, and proclaimed never to have existed. Voted into power by the majority, it is a world from which there is no reprieve and no escape.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF TERROR

Terrorism is the killing of noncombatants to achieve ideological aims. It is thrill killing, sensation killing, excitement killing, pornographic killing and hate killing to achieve aims which are themselves murderous. Marked by murderous acts to achieve murderous aims, terrorism is a nightmare symptom of the rejection of reason, and it flourishes whenever religion flourishes. Terrorism was invented by the Abrahamic religions and spilled blood across the world under the murderous banners of Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Abrahamic Terror. Terrorism entered the world when Jews rebelled against the Roman Empire in the province of Judea. In the Jewish-Roman War in 66 to 70 BC, Jews massacred Romans because they hated Classical secular, pagan reason. The Jewish Bible, called the Old Testament, commands Jews to kill Hittites, Amorites and Canaanites. Christian terror commenced after the rise of Emperor Constantine, 306 to 337 AD, who granted official tolerance to Christianity. Issued by Constantine in 313, the Edict of Milan granted Christianity legal status and opened the floodgates to the Christian killing of nonChristians, called heretics, and sectarian killing between Christian groups. Christians destroyed Classical monuments and literature as hated symbols of pagan reason. Christians launched crusades of mass murder under banners marked just war and holy war: "Following the conversion of the emperors, in the fourth century, the church became more open to using violence. Church leaders, after an initial shock, began supporting the use of force against heretics. Then Augustine formulated his theory of 'just war,' but his terms mean 'holy war.' Augustine and the medieval world concluded that violence is not evil. Instead, violence is morally neutral. That makes a crusade possible." (Holy Violence Then and Now, Christian History Institute). Islamic terror is a command of the prophet Muhammad, the Quran and Sharia law. Marching under banners marked Jihad, Islamic extremism and rejection of the separation between church and state has sent rivers of blood cascading across the world in the twenty first century. The terror commenced with the attacks against America on September 11, 2001 by Al Qaeda, which hijacked four commercial airliners and flew them into the New York World Trade Center and the Pentagon in Washington DC, killing 3000 people: "Islamist extremism is a form of political extremism that postulates the existence of a divinely ordained–and therefore true and absolute–order that overrides the orders made by man. The generic term covers several currents and movements which differ as to their ideological premises, their geographic orientation and their strategies and means. Islamist extremism is based on the conviction that the world religion of Islam is not only a personal or private affair, but that it should also rule social life and the political order or regulate at least part of it. This is in clear contradiction to the principles of the sovereignty of the people, the separation of state and religion, freedom of expression and general equal rights, all of which are laid down in the Basic Law of the Federal Republic of Germany. Referring to their religion, Islamist extremists strive to wholly or partly abolish the free democratic basic order of the Federal Republic of Germany, which is why Islamist extremism falls within the remit of the German domestic intelligence services." (Islamist Extremism And Islamist Terrorism, verfassungsschutz.de). Marxist Terror. In the nineteenth century, the earth opened and a modern day version of the Abrahamic religions emerged from the depths of darkness, escorted into the world by Satan. This new religion is known as Marxism, and since the time its prophet Karl Marx first committed its murderous words to print, it has in its multifarious forms and manifestations spilled more blood than any other religion in history. Rejecting the existence of real, flesh and blood individuals, and viewing reality through the distorting filters of mystical tribes which have taken the place of the Abrahamic God, Marxists have constructed a universe of means of killing, constructed gulags, firing squads, gas chambers, death squads, killing fields, execution chambers and concentration camps, and committed mass murder in the name of gender, race and class ideologies. Since the appearance of Marx's holy bible, the Communist Manifesto, commissioned by the Communist League and published in 1848, Marxists have committed mass murder under an everexpanding forest of flags. They have committed mass murder in the name of international socialism. In the name of national socialism. In the name of ethnic socialism. In the name of black power. In the name of white power. In the name of Bolshevism. In the name of Maoism. In the name of Black Lives Matter. In the name of antifascist resistance. In the name of fighting the bourgeois. In the name of defending the working class. In the name of a workers' paradise. In the name of fighting kulaks. In the name of fighting Christians. In the name of fighting conservatives.

In the name of the New Left. In the name of the Old Left. In the name of silencing capitalist oppressors. In the name of universal equality. In the name of women's rights. In the name of welfare rights. In the name of gay and lesbian rights. In the name of transgender rights. In the name of fighting police brutality. In the name of the Weather Underground. In the name of the Red Army Faction. In the name of the Irish Republican Army. In the name of protecting illegal aliens from immigration enforcement agents. In the name of reducing healthcare costs. In the name of defending Islam and its anticapitalist, antiEnlightenment war against the West. In the name of fighting counterrevolution. Following in the footsteps of the Abrahamic religions, a Marxist culture of arson, looting, stabbing, beating, bombing and assassination has spread a force of evil across the world without equal in history: "Those riding the tide [of mass murder] have included Bolsheviks, national socialists, Maoists, Black Lives Matter incendiaries, Antifa thugs and gender ideology hit men. Among its victims, over the course of 236 years, are aristocrats, Christians, Jews, bourgeoisie, kulaks, intellectuals, dissidents and conservative hero Charlie Kirk. Our culture of violence was shaped by the revolutionary left, which has infiltrated every aspect of society, including higher education and entertainment. According to a 2024 survey by the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression, 25% of liberal [Marxist] college students approve of violence to stop conservatives from speaking on campus. Only 55% of Gen Z believe political violence is never acceptable, compared with 93% of baby boomers and 86% of Gen X. In a 2024 Rasmussen survey, 28% of Democrats said America would have been better off if President Trump had died by an assassin's bullet. Another 24% said they were unsure. Those celebrating Kirk's demise include professors, teachers, physicians, airline pilots, elected officials and even a US Army colonel, since relieved of duty. Can you imagine anyone in a position of authority in 1963 applauding the assassination of President Kennedy? Leftist violence is an almost daily occurrence. The death toll includes law enforcement, business leaders and prominent conservatives. New Left philosopher Herbert Marcuse taught a generation of activists that silencing socalled oppressors was justified in the name of the fight for equality. Most Democratic politicians condoned the rioting after the death of George Floyd in 2020, including Massachusetts Governor Maura Healey, Minnesota Governor. Tim Walz and then Senator Kamala Harris, whose staff set up a bail fund for rioters. Black Lives Matter organized the arson and looting. Patrisse Cullors, one of its cofounders, described herself as a 'trained Marxist.' She was recruited to the cause by Eric Mann, a former member of the terrorist Weather Underground. Tyler Robinson, charged with killing Kirk, is the latest link in a chain. Messages on his rifle and bullet casings include Bella Ciao, a slogan adopted by Antifa, along with the word fascist. Antifa's latest campaign is assaulting immigration enforcement agents. Antifa is a contraction of antifascist. If you disagree with it on race, sexuality or immigration, you are a nazi, and they have carte blanche to attack you. They sent independent journalist Andy Ngo to the hospital for exposing their tactics. Mr Trump just announced he will designate Antifa as a major terrorist organization. Last week, an activist judge dismissed terrorism charges against Luigi Mangione, charged with murder in the death of health care CEO Brian Thompson. Like Robinson, Mangione is part of the left wing assassination culture. According to indictments, Robinson killed Kirk for his views on transgenderism and Mangione killed Thompson to strike a blow against the health care industry. Conservative commentator Charles Krauthammer once observed: 'To understand the workings of American politics, you have to understand this fundamental law: Conservatives think liberals [Marxists] are stupid. Liberals [Marxists] think conservatives are evil.' What do you do with someone you think is stupid? If you're Charlie Kirk, you try to educate them. What do you do with someone you consider evil? You send them to the guillotine. You put them against the wall. You stick them in a gulag or death camp. You shoot them in the neck with a high-powered rifle. The left's utopian vision can be realized only with bloodshed. It asks us to give up our property, our families, and our freedom for a classless [proletarian] society. For the envious, the malicious and those desperate to merge their identity with a cause, that may work. In certain circumstances it may even work with a majority–for a time. Eventually, however, reason will prevail. People will get tired of being robbed, starved and beaten. That's why violence is necessary to build the workers' paradise–that and free bus service–and violence is needed to maintain it. The building process includes dealing with counterrevolutionaries by any means necessary." (The Left Was Born In Bloodshed–And Not Much Has Changed by Don Feder). Marxist Terror. Hanging in the Vatican Palace is a masterwork by the sixteenth century Italian painter Tommaso Laureti. Titled Triumph Of The Cross, it depicts the destruction of pagan gods, symbols of reason, and their replacement with the image of Jesus, symbol of faith, ordered by Constantine throughout the Roman Empire. The destruction of the symbols of reason by the forces of religion has continued unabated in the twenty first century. The Marxists successors of the Christians have hammered civilization to death.

THE PRINCE OF DARKNESS

He hated human nature which revealed that man is a rational animal. He hated real, physical, flesh and blood existence. He did not see individuals but hallucinated classes and called them true reality. He proclaimed that collectivism is the highest form of social organization and condemned the concern for individual rights as the essence of evil. He promoted human slavery and called it collective interest, collective ownership and universal equality, and the religion he founded led to the deaths of one hundred million people. He published his holy bible in 1848 and it set on fire the moral sewers of the world, the human bacteria of envy, hatred and discontent, and the fires would sweep into homes, schools, offices and factories, and in the twentieth century, would burn up backward nations, and begin to spread into the free world. His religion is a synonym for mass murder, and its spread worldwide is a synonym for cultural degeneration and the sickness of our times. Afflicting every culture in a stage of decline, this is the sickness which causes people to reject reason and embrace religion. Ancient Rome was felled by the proliferation of religions from Germanic folklore to statism, caesarism, welfare dolism and Christianity, and the West since the dawn of the twentieth century has been in the grip of a second age of religiousness which rejects the Enlightenment and seeks to bring back the first age, the Dark Ages. In the twentieth century, the Dark Ages were brought back in the form of a religion of collectivism founded by Karl Marx, and over the past one hundred and twenty five years, this religion has spread into every corner of society. Marxism rules the cultural and political establishment; it has captured the hearts and minds of the masses and inspired the establishment of welfare, regulatory, redistributionist, high taxation states across the West; and its founder is channeled by parliamentarians, professors, pundits and media personalities on a regular basis. Marxism is the orthodoxy ruling today's universities and is promoted in all its race and gender variants in the books, papers, lectures classrooms, conferences and colloquiums which dominate the academic scene. Listen to today's academics proclaim that a progressive society refuses to reward excellence, merit, talent, ability and initiative in individuals or admit that such things even exist. It proclaims that individuals possessing superior talents and abilities are arrogant and unpleasant and should be deprived of all their rewards and recognition. It proclaims that man is a collective and not an individual being. It proclaims that the collective is the primary reality and individuals possess no rights, dignity or worth before it, and the belief that individuals possess rights over and against the collective is a product of fascist, right wing thinking. It proclaims that a progressive society privileges the state over the individual and crushes the individual beneath the steamrollers of social responsibility. It proclaims that because all people possess equal rights, they should possess equal wealth, and people who possess great wealth should be expropriated and levelled down. It proclaims that the poor have a right to the wealth possessed by the rich. It proclaims that the have nots have a right to the wealth possessed by the haves. It proclaims that it is not fair that individuals who are talented, competent and work hard are rewarded for their efforts, and that people who are untalented, incompetent and indolent are not rewarded. It proclaims that it is an injustice that there exist differences among individuals and that some individuals are more intelligent and talented than others. It proclaims that success and achievement are products of sheer good luck and not superior talent or ability, and thus nobody deserves the success or achievement he or she possesses. It proclaims that a person's failures are the result of sheer bad luck and not personal errors or incompetence, and he or she should not suffer ill consequences in consequence of them. It proclaims that free will is an illusion; people are not responsible for their behavior; and thus nobody should be punished for committing evil deeds. It proclaims that criminals are victims are their environment and should not be held responsible for their actions. It proclaims that the capitalist system which rewards success and punishes failure makes the failures unjustly unhappy and the successful unjustly happy, because success is a product of sheer good luck. It proclaims that people who achieve success should have their wealth taken away from them and given to the failures in the name of compassion. It proclaims that a progressive society is an egalitarian slave society in which the government takes from each according to his ability and gives to each according to his need. It proclaims that a progressive society is a communist totalitarian swampland in which freedom and justice have been submerged and banished forever: "Atlantic writer Helen Lewis was recently interviewed by respected journalist Bari Weiss about her provocatively titled new book, The Genius Myth: A Curious History of a Dangerous Idea. The title is provocative because it contains two fallacies. First, she says, there is no such thing as exceptional talent. Second, argues that the very idea of exceptional talent is somehow 'dangerous.' The first claim is obviously wrong; some people are cleverer and more energetic than others—even Lewis admits it, after a while. To imply an untruth, that such differences don't exist, is itself dangerous. Furthermore, if we are not to admire excellence, merit, genius, exceptional talent, why should anyone aspire to it? To deplore genius is to elevate its opposite. The author's main theme, however, is not so much to disparage geniuses—although she does some of that—or even envy their success. What she is really upset about is that some 'geniuses' are obnoxious characters and are allowed to get away with it because of their talent. 'I have a personal reluctance to say there is a level of people being assholes that we should tolerate in order to have inventions,' she writes. Lewis confuses fame with genius. Not all geniuses are famous. Not all celebrities are geniuses. There are modest geniuses just as there are arrogant mediocrities. It is fame and huge wealth that encourage arrogance, not talent ipso facto. Is Donald Trump's obnoxiousness—he is a favorite bete noire—due to his genius or his fame? I doubt she considers him a genius, so fame then? That would be a silly confusion. Lewis goes on: 'I write in the book that genius is a right wing idea because it is about the individual and the idea of privileging them over the collective.' My handy artificial intelligence helper summarizes 'Individualism emphasizes the moral worth and autonomy of the individual over collective or institutional control.' Ms Lewis is opposed to that idea, evidently. For her, 'the collective' is everything. This also happens to be a Marxist axiom: 'The human essence is the true collectivist essence.' No more autonomous individual; the individual exists only as part of the collective. Most people will find this idea repellant. The book has many other flaws in addition to misreading talent rather than fame as a source of bad behavior. Lewis seems to think that universal rights are somehow incompatible with individual differences, including the fact that some are more talented than others. She confuses equal rights with equal social status: 'We need a framework to mitigate against what is demonstrably true—that some people are innately born with enormous talents and abilities, and some people are not. So you need a framework that mitigates against that by suggesting that we're endowed by our creator with certain unalienable rights, or we are all equal because we are all created in the image of God.' So we must bring down those who stand out, 'mitigate' those with exceptional talent? Lewis thinks this egalitarian imperative is self evident. Why? Whether she knows it or not, Lewis is following a flawed philosophy long promoted by influential Harvard political philosopher Michael Sandel and his late colleague John Rawls, who famously said that 'the distribution of natural talents is arbitrary from a moral point of view.' Hence, they are unjust. Rawls and Sandel don't distinguish between injustice and bad luck. They don't believe in the idea of 'just deserts,' the idea that people should be rewarded for doing good or punished for doing bad. This is an extraordinary departure not just from common sense but from practice throughout most of human history. Harvard is not alone. For example, Stanford legal scholar Barbara Fried, mother of fraudster Sam Bankman-Fried, has written at length against the whole idea of blame. There is no free will, so perpetrators should not be blamed for their bad actions. If good people are not responsible for being good, well then, bad people should not be blamed for being bad. Sandel's position is mostly subjective and personal, based on people's feelings. People at the low end of society 'are made to feel that their failure is their own fault, a failure of character, a lack of merit.' He is particularly concerned that the successful might actually think they deserve their success, as he writes in The Tyranny Of Merit. There is nothing wrong with recognizing and rewarding talent and effort. The problem is when the successful come to believe that they morally deserve the rewards that the market bestows upon them, and that those who struggle deserve their fate too. What's wrong, according to Sandel, is that those who fail, or don't even try, might feel they deserve their fate also. So, we must avoid rewarding the above average lest we make the below average feel unhappy. The unhappiness of the unsuccessful weighs more than the happiness of the successful. Recognition of excellence must give way to compassion for failure." (Helen Lewis's Dumb Attack On Smart People by John Staddon). The Prince of Darkness. The Giant Book is the largest extant illuminated book in the world, with a length of 100 centimeters. It is the Christian Bible and it was produced during the Dark Ages. On pages shimmering with gold, silver and vibrant colors are full page portraits of the Devil, depicted as a monstrous, inhuman, nightmare creature. Making the religion of collectivism popular throughout the West in the nineteenth century, with a popularity which would make it a state religion in the twentieth century and the present day, Karl Marx was a reincarnation of the Satanic figure shimmering in the Giant Book. The career of his religion mimicked the career of Christianity in ancient Rome: legalization followed by enforcement. Marxism was legalized, tolerated and spread in the nineteenth century, and in the twentieth century it became a state religion, and appearing in such forms as international socialism, national socialism, race socialism, class socialism, white socialism, black socialism, gender socialism and ethnic socialism, it rules the present day West. Springing into actuality from pages of the Giant Book, the Devil has lowered the curtain on civilization.

OCTOBER 18, 2025: GLOBAL RED UPRISING

Germany, January 1919. The new liberal democratic government led by President Friedrich Ebert is attacked by communists. Seeking to replicate the Russian Revolution of 1917, they seek to transform Germany into a totalitarian dictatorship marching under the banners of the proletariat. Led by Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxembourg, 100,000 communists go on strike and seize key buildings in Berlin, housing newspaper, radio and telegraph offices and the central government. In March-April 1920, the communist Ruhr Red Army overthrows the government and seizes control over the industrial Ruhr region. In October 1923, communists in Hamburg storm twenty four police stations and set up barricades around the city. The Spartacist Uprising in Berlin, the Ruhr Uprising and the Hamburg Uprising placed freedom under attack in Germany as they shook the foundations of the Weimar Republic. Weimar Germany became a battleground of two Marxist armies, the classic communist armies and the derivative national socialist armies, the armies of class hatred and the armies of race hatred, as the liberal institutions inherited from the Enlightenment vaporized beneath the blazing sun of socialist tyranny. Marxist uprisings in one form or another have been a recurring feature of late stage Western civilization commencing in the twentieth century, and fueled by mass popular support, they are composing the final pages of the story of the West. On October 18, 2025, one more page was appeared as a Marxist uprising swept through America and the West. The latest uprising, galvanizing the moral sewers of society, commenced in America and was joined by Europe and Canada. Uprising. On October 18, 2025, Marxists throughout the world staged hate America and hate the West rallies which brought about national and international convulsions. They promoted universal enslavement in the name of No Kings. In the name of antifascist resistance. In the name of anarchism. In the name of Hamas and Palestine. In the name of the Democrat Party. In the name of anticapitalism and fighting against the free enterprise system. In the name of fighting against limited government and constitutional rights. In the name of fighting against the rule of law. In the name of fighting against fiscal responsibility and balanced budgets. In the name of fighting against a just and honorable peace, the peace secured through superior strength and power. In the name of fighting against the rule of free minds and free markets. In the name of fighting against human dignity and human flourishing. In the name of fighting against law enforcement and military defense. In the name of fighting against the liberal system proclaiming the inalienable rights of the individual to life, liberty, property and the pursuit of happiness. In the name of shutting down the federal government. In the name of strengthening the existing cancel culture against the antiMarxist opposition. In the name of fighting against the right to speak and express oneself without censorship, and to speak one's mind against the Marxist establishment. In the name of fighting against Donald Trump and his campaign to roll back Marxism, to roll back the regime of racist and sexist diversity policies, chromosome denying transgender rights and dissolved borders open to the migrant scum of the earth, and to make America great again by making America free again, sane again and American again: "Leftists will be engaging in the 'hate America rally' over the weekend, House Speaker Mike Johnson (R-LA) said during his press conference on Friday. Speaking of the weekend's planned No Kings protests across the country, Johnson said Americans can plan on seeing 'the Marxists the socialists, the Antifa advocates, the anarchists and the proHamas wing of the far left Democrat party,' which 'is the modern Democrat Party.' 'That's where they've gone, and the hate America rally is the common theme among all those groups,' he explained. 'Listen to the language they use themselves. Many of them don't like living in America. They hate capitalism. They hate our free enterprise system. They hate our principles. They hate the ideas that we come in to work every day, to fight for, to preserve the greatest nation in the history of the world.' Further, Johnson said they hate the 'idea of individual freedom and limited government.' 'They hate the idea of the rule of law. They fight against it all the time. They hate the idea of peace through strength. They lobby against it all the time. Individual freedom, limited government, the rule of law, peace through strength, fiscal responsibility, free markets, human dignity, the things that lead to human flourishing, the things that made us the greatest nation in the history of the world,' he continued, also highlighting their opposition to law enforcement and military. 'Their votes show it over and over. That's the collection of voices that you'll hear tomorrow that the Democrats will go out and raise their hands with and cheer with. And some of these people are so blinded by their hatred of President Donald Trump, that they can't find one reason to celebrate America or all that we've accomplished and continue to accomplish under this new administration,' he said, making it clear that these Americans are still free to exercise their First Amendment rights. 'I'm personally a big advocate of that. I spent the first 20 years of my legal career in the federal courts, before it came to Congress, defending the right to free speech. They have the right to do it. Republicans, by the way, are the party that fights to maximize your liberty. And we believe, just as our founders did, that every American has been endowed with inalienable rights that includes the rights to life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness,' he said, adding that the protests on Saturday are not about freedom at all but the 'opposite.' 'For many of our Democrat colleagues, tomorrow is about creating really a spectacle. That's what they've been doing here every day of the shutdown, with their little TikTok videos and their publicity stunts, and they're going to do it in a much larger venue tomorrow,' he said, adding that Democrats are obviously dragging out the shutdown to make this spectacle even bigger. 'It's becoming increasingly clear that this spectacle is the reason the Democrats have refused to reopen the government. Just read a sample of the materials that this organizing group has circulated far and wide about the event tomorrow. They distributed talking points cheering on the topic. They're urging this on. They love this. They're cheering on Chuck Schumer's decision to close the government,' Johnson added. The Speaker also reminded the audience that 'Americans have more freedom right now to express themselves and speak their minds after Republicans took over,' pointing to the cancel culture under the Biden administration, which really took off during the coronavirus era. 'It is the Republicans restored your right to share and speak your mind. That's the first and most obvious irony of the hate America rally,' he added." (Speaker Mike Johnson: 'No Kings' Protests Are A 'Hate America Rally' by Hannah Knudsen). Uprising. On October 18, 2025, from New York to Washington to Chicago to Miami to Los Angeles to Berlin to Madrid to Rome to Toronto, mass riots and drumbeats of violence composed the latest chapter of the Marxist war against the Enlightenment. Throughout the world, Marxists promoted universal enslavement in the name of democracy. In the name of fighting against Donald Trump and his campaign to roll back Marxist gender, race and class politics and make America great again by making it constitutional again. In the name of recognizing the sovereignty of Canada. In the name of fighting against fascism and authoritarian government. In the name of fighting against Hitler and Mussolini. In the name of fighting against crackdowns on illegal immigration of human bacteria. In the name of receiving free day care, free health care and a minimum wage from the state. In the name of loving a socialist America in which individuals are forced to live and work for the sake of the collective, and hating a free America in which individuals are held to possess inherent rights, freedoms and dignity all their own which no power can take away: "Huge crowds have taken part in No Kings protests against President Donald Trump's policies in cities across the US, including New York, Washington DC, Chicago, Miami and Los Angeles. Thousands packed New York City's iconic Times Square and streets all around, with people holding signs with slogans like Democracy not Monarchy and The Constitution is not optional.' In New York, sections of the crowd regularly erupted into chants of 'This is what democracy looks like' as a near constant drumbeat boomed in the background. The New York Police Department said more than 100,000 people had gathered across all five of the city's boroughs. In Times Square, a police officer standing by estimated that over 20,000 were marching down 7th Avenue. Beth Zasloff, a freelance writer and editor, said she had joined the New York protest because she feels outraged and distressed at 'a move toward fascism and an authoritarian government' happening under the Trump administration. 'I care a lot about New York City,' she said. 'It gives me hope to be out here with many, many other people.' Massimo Mascoli, a 68 year old retired electronic engineer and resident of New Jersey who grew up in Italy, said he was protesting because he was concerned the US was following the same path that his home country did in the last century. Mr Mascoli said he was particularly worried about the Trump administration's immigration crackdown and healthcare cuts for millions of Americans. One protester at the rally in the capital held up a sign that read I am Antifa. Chuck Epes, 76, said it was a 'loaded' term, and just meant he supported 'peace, daycare, liveable wage, healthcare,' as well as immigrants and people of color. Democratic politicians joined the protests around the country. 'We have no dictators in America. And we won't allow Trump to keep eroding our democracy,' Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer wrote on X alongside photos of himself holding up a sign that read 'fix the health care crisis' in New York. Throughout Europe, there were also demonstrations Berlin, Madrid and Rome as people showed solidarity with their American counterparts. In London, several hundred protesters gathered outside the US embassy. There were similar scenes in Toronto, where demonstrators near the US consulate waved signs including Hands off Canada." ('No Kings' Protests Draw Huge Crowds As AntiTrump Rallies Sweep Across US by Grace Eliza Goodwin and Caitlin Wilson). Uprising. From 1917 to 1991, a Marxist octopus terrorized free nations and free institutions. Directed by the Soviet Union, its tentacles reached across Eastern Europe, the Far East and Latin America, grasping for land, power and world domination. The fall of the Soviet Union in 1991 resulted in the decapitation of the octopus but not the destruction of the international Marxist movement. It is alive and well in the twenty first century. Animated by Marxist majorities in control of Western establishments, this nightmare creature has a thousand heads and a thousand tentacles, reaching into every home, school, office and factory in society. Promoting endless government shutdowns, trillion dollar welfare spending, the diversity politics of racism and sexism, biology defying transgender rights and tax payer funded healthcare for illegal immigrants, the Marxist octopus reared its head on October 18, 2025.

COMMUNISTS CANCEL COLUMBUS

On October 12, 1492, an Italian explorer from Genoa, leading a Spanish expedition to cross the Atlantic Ocean in search of an alternative route to the Far East to escape the grip of Islam, landed in the Bahamas. He thought he had landed in the East Indies, but with his three ships, Nina, Pinta and Santa Maria, he landed in the New World, and inaugurated the colonization of the savage Americas by the West. His name was Christopher Columbus, and the day of his arrival in the New World is celebrated as a national holiday throughout the world. It is celebrated just as his achievements are condemned by the civilization which launched his voyages of exploration and discovery centuries ago. They are condemned by a civilization which, like the travel routes to the East Columbus sought to bypass, has fallen in the grip of an alien religion. This is not a religion from the East from which Columbus sought to escape but is a religion from the West itself, a religion whose ascendancy in the present day is a symptom of civilizational free fall which has reduced the West to moral and spiritual bankruptcy. In the twenty first century, Christopher Columbus has been cancelled by the religion known as Marxism, and his name and memory have been blackened by the Western establishment. The West today, a universe apart from the West of yesteryear, the West of Columbus's day and the West of the Enlightenment, hates Columbus for all the reasons for which he once was exalted. Columbus Canceled. The West today hates Columbus because he sought to smash the tyranny of Islam on the high seas. Because he planted the flag of civilization in benighted lands. Because he carried reason, wisdom, law and science into the New World. Because he established freedom, safety and opportunity. Because he established religious freedom and freedom of conscience. Because he abolished human sacrifice and cannibalism and spread the idea of human rights. Because he established scientific medicine in the New World and freed it from afflictions of disease and pestilence which ravage savage populations. Because he banished the black death of ignorance and superstition. Because he represented Western liberal Enlightenment civilization and its mission to eradicate indigenous cruelty, collectivism and inhumanity: "Battles over Columbus Day aren’t really about Christopher Columbus at all—they’re about whether America itself should exist. 'Columbus's journey carried thousands of years of wisdom, philosophy, reason, and culture across the Atlantic into the Americas—paving the way for the ultimate triumph of Western civilization less than three centuries later on July 4, 1776,' President Donald Trump said in his Columbus Day proclamation. Yet that’s why the holiday has so many enemies. That civilization is what opponents of Columbus Day reject. Columbus extended the horizons of Western civilization, which is what the holiday in his name recognizes. Italian-Americans are especially proud of Columbus, a son of Italy and the seafaring republic of Genoa in particular. But this isn’t just an ethnic holiday—everyone whose ancestors weren’t already in this hemisphere when Columbus arrived owes the heroic explorer a debt of gratitude. By forging permanent ties between the Americas and the wider world, Columbus made our lives and way of life possible. He opened the way not only for Europeans like himself but ultimately for people of every land to seek freedom, safety and opportunity in a New World without the class constraints and ancient hatreds of the Old World. In 1492, the same year Columbus sailed into the uncharted Atlantic, his Spanish royal patrons banished Jews from their land—yet because of Columbus’s discoveries, Jews would one day find haven half a world away from the persecutions they long endured elsewhere. Columbus didn’t introduce slavery to the Americas; the natives already had that evil institution before Europeans came. He did, however, set in motion the end of the New World’s own characteristic horrors, such as the Aztec's human sacrifices and the cannibalism practised by the Caribs. Columbus deserves no blame for the diseases that devastated native populations. Sooner or later these peoples—with no immunity to infections which most of the human race had contended with for generations—would have suffered the same tragic fate from contact with the outside world. The Black Death that ravaged medieval Europe came from abroad, too, from contact with Asia. Only in the modern world, as a result of Western science and medicine, is humanity free to travel and trade with little fear pestilence will follow. And when new diseases like COVID do spread around the globe, the resources of civilization that Columbus helped spread are able to meet the threat. Columbus was an exemplar of much that is best in our character. He was the first and in many ways an archetypal American, an enterprising immigrant who risked everything for a new hope, who set out to improve his family's lot in life. He was our first pioneer, and he's been honored in the United States since the late 18th century, when New York City's Society of Tammany—also known as the Columbian Order—began celebrating his October birthday. The federal holiday is more recent, with Congress first asking Franklin Roosevelt to proclaim a day for Columbus in the 1930s, and the statutory holiday established in 1971. But it's the pitched opposition to Columbus that's really novel. Mayor Eric Adams has had to urge New York's Landmarks Commission to grant protected status to the admiral's statues, so Zohran Mamdani can't tear them down if he becomes mayor. On college campuses and in state capitals across the country, left wing activists call for replacing Columbus Day with an Indigenous Peoples Day. Columbus Day celebrates the birthday of Western civilization as something not confined only to Europe. Yet in our country, all too many of the spoiled heirs to this civilization regret the very achievements that made their existence possible—including the supreme achievements of Christopher Columbus." (Spoiled Leftists Despise Columbus Day—But What They Really Hate Is America by Daniel McCarthy). Columbus Canceled. The West today hates Columbus because he abolished horror in the New World. Because he abolished the eating of human flesh and bones commanded by the Aztec and Maya religions. Because he abolished a living nightmare in which the good, noble and brave were sacrificed to gods and consumed. In which they were imprisoned, enslaved, impaled, flayed, cooked, seasoned and served in elaborate banquets. In which consuming humans in sacrifice was exalted as the highest form of feasting. In which human flesh was exalted as the most pleasant food to the taste, and providing the flesh of warriors and slaves was exalted as the highest duty of the noble class: "Ritual cannibalism–the eating of human flesh and bones for religious purposes–was an age old tradition shared throughout a large portion of the Mesoamerican world. Splintered human bones appeared in the garbage at the Preclassic Olmec site of San Lorenzo, Veracruz (ca. 1200-900 B.C.) suggesting that someone had gnawed on them. Sixteenth century reports of the practice come from the Tarascans in Michoacan and the Lacandon Maya in Guatemala. Christopher Columbus named the practice after the Carib Indians of the Caribbean. Spanish explorers experienced cannibalism first hand. One of Hernan Cortes' eventual translators, Jeronimo de Aguilar, watched the ritualistic consumption of four of his shipwrecked companions. This spurred him and his remaining friends to escape from the wooden cages in which they were imprisoned by their Maya captors. The Aztecs continued this tradition of eating their captives, although sometimes with a more familial feel. Spanish sources suggest that the majority of Aztec cannibalistic ritual offerings were slaves captured in either battle or as booty from vanquished cities. The majority of these seem to have been men and, of them, largely warriors. Sometimes the most valorous warrior slaves of noble heritage were chosen because of their great fortitude and skill, especially if the sacrifice demanded a difficult, ritualized battle. According to Spanish sources, after the sacrifice was offered to the deity, it was common to first remove the heart, then the head and, sometimes, flay the offering. Once this was done, old men called the Quaquacuilton put poles through the body and carried it back to its owner waiting in the neighborhood's calpulli house or some other ritual meeting place. The owner could be someone who had bought a slave in the marketplace or the warrior who had captured his offering in battle. Usually, the ritual meal was held in the appropriate meeting house. The sixteenth century friar, Bernardino de Sahagun, tells us that, in the case of a warrior, the captor's family could partake of the captive; but not the captor himself. He was considered the captive's symbolic 'father' and it was not proper for him to eat his own 'son.' Another sixteenth century friar, Diego Duran also tell us that only the nobility had the right to offer humans for sacrificial feasting; commoners offered things like quail and other edible delicacies. This was because providing a human for a sacrificial meal was the most 'honored obligation' and so was reserved for the noble class. As Duran reports, this food was 'delicious, tasty, hot for the gods, since that flesh was sweet and pleasant to them.' Cannibalistic dishes varied, although the most common method was to cook corn in one pot, the meat in another and, when done, serve up bowls of stewed corn topped with 'small pieces' of cooked, human flesh. These dishes would be flavored with aromatic seasonings and could contain beans, chilies or squash blossoms." (The Aztecs And Cannibalism by Kay Read). Columbus Canceled. Five hundred years after Christopher Columbus arrived in the New World, his achievements have been condemned, his character slandered, his statues toppled, his monuments vandalized, his presence banished from public spaces and his day of celebration erased from the calendar. Before this terrifying spectacle, decent, virtuous, upright people think to themselves, "I am Christopher Columbus." The attack on Columbus is an attack on every member of civilization and is an attack on civilization itself. In the dying days of the West, the savage world which Columbus abolished has returned and haunts the land.